COMMENT: of whom was Ann O'Conner 1202.4B + Susannah Richardson 1202.4C. Thomas's birth recorded LDS T998118/205 SD 1126289. (OVER)

Thomas witnessed a will in Baltimore Cty. in 1735 He also witnessed the will of Samuel Durbin (600.0) records of Thomas's various legal transactions regarding will, estates & purchase or sale of land begin will the above mentioned 1735 will to the sale of 22 acres "Goodfellow" in 1765 @ K-324. A 1790 Baltimore Cty. Census shows Thomas Logsdon with a male & female & one slave living alone.

The children of Thomas & Mary are very difficult to track and only one (per Md Family of Logsdon) is for sure that being Thomas Jr. 1202.45.

Thomas as father of "Joe" referenced in Washington's (George) diary of 9/25/1784: "I set forth at sun-rise..... I descended into Ryan's Glade hence by Thomas Logsdons, father of Joe ..... from young Logsdons, who by his own account knows every hill & rivulet between North Branch and Dunkers Bottoms & makes hunting his chief employment."

p51 maryland Family of Logsdon.

may be son of 1202.47 (?) assumed to be 02/1992 thus 1202.471

An odd and unidentified Logsdon in Hardin County is the subject of this item. His name, JAMES VAUGHN LOGSDON and no guess as to his parentage is hazarded. He was a pensioner from the War of 1812 (WC-30093) enlisting from Grayson County and served in Captain William Greenaway's Company in the 13th Kentucky Infantry. (This 13th Infantry was the same Regiment in which William Logsdon (Old Curley Bill) who married Elizabeth Carmen served.) James Logsdon served from 11/15/1814 to 5/15/1815. His widow states in his pension application that James Logsdon first married a Miss Jones from Tennessee. (A search of marriage records brings out - - -

Warren County 1813 m. Mary Jones
Hardin County 1813 m. Sally Jones

In both cases the groom was a James Logsdon.) The 1820 Census Record in Hardin County shows James and wife age 26-45, and with a son under 10.

James Logsdon remarried 3/4/1853 to a POLLY COLLINS (who makes the application for pension) and while she does not mention James's children by his first wife, she does testify that the following children were born to her marriage - -

1. MARGARET LOGSDON born 2/9/1854
2. JAMES LOGSDON born 12/3/1856
3. SARAH E. LOGSDON born 9/12/1858

The pension application states that James Logsdon was born in 1782 and died 1859, thus making his last child born to him in his 76th. year, and attested to in his pension papers.

miles west of Frostburg. The highwaymen had built a brush fence across the road, and had then withdrawn from it a short distance. When the coach came up, and as soon as it got between them and the brush, the robbers called for its surrender, but the veteran Luman, lashing his horses, drove safely over the obstruction and escaped. During the whole of the year 1841 two men, named Brady and McCormack, kept up a systematic robbery of the mails carried by the coaches, but they were finally captured, and, McCormack turning State's evidence, Brady was convicted and sent to the penitentiary, where he died.

The appropriation made by Congress for the construction of the National road was a matter of great moment to the people of Allegany County, and perhaps none more highly appreciated its importance than the citizens of Cumberland, as will appear from the following quaint account from a contemporary journal:

> "The citizens of the town, on the 21st of May, 1832, in demonstration of their great joy, growing out of the appropriation made by the national government for the repair of the Cumberland road, made arrangements for the celebration of that event. In pursuance of that arrangement, Samuel Slicer, Esq., illuminated his large and splendid hotel, which patriotic example was followed by James Black, Esq. In addition to the illumination, Mr. Bunton, agent of L. W. Stockton, Esq., ordered out a coach drawn by four large gray steeds, driven by Mr. George Shuck. The stage was beautifully illuminated, which presented to the generous citizens of this place a novelty calculated to impress upon the minds of all who witnessed it the great benefits they anticipated by having the road repaired. There were also seated upon the top of the vehicle several gentlemen, who played on various instruments, which contributed very much to the amusement of the citizens, and gave a zest to everything that inspired delight or created feelings of patriotism. . . . They started from the front of Mr. Slicer's hotel, and as they moved on slowly the band played 'Hail Columbia,' 'Freemasons' March,' 'Bonaparte Crossing the Rhine,' 'Washington's March,' etc., together with a new tune composed by Mr. Mobley, of this place, and named by the gentlemen on the stage 'The Lady we Love Best,' and many others, as they passed through the principal streets of the town. On their return they played 'Home, Sweet Home,' to the admiration of all who heard it."

Bridges, Railroads, and Canal.—In a letter from George Washington, dated July 21, 1758, to Col. Bouquet, written from "Camp near Fort Cumberland," he says, "The bridge is finished at this place, and to-morrow Maj. Peachey, with three hundred men, will proceed to open Braddock's road." This bridge was across Will's Creek. In 1755, Braddock's men had prepared the timbers for it, but it is not known whether or not they completed it. They probably made a temporary structure during the fall and spring rises, when the creek was too high to allow the passage of wagons over the fords. The bridge alluded to by Washington was carried away by a flood after the town was laid out. In 1790 there was a small bridge built over Will's Creek, near the Baltimore Street bridge of to-day. In 1791, by order of the Levy Court, Alpheus and Thomas Beall repaired it at a cost of twenty pounds, and in the following year Joseph Kelly and William McMahon expended the same amount of money on it by the court's order. In 1795 the court selected Patrick Murdoch, John Graham, and David Hoffman to erect a bridge over Will's Creek for thirty pounds. They contracted with William Logsden in April, 1796, to rebuild the old bridge and finish it by September following. The specifications stipulated that it should be five feet higher than the old one, and sixteen feet in width, with a railing of three feet. Logsden contracted to preserve it for seven years, and to put it up again if carried off by floods, save when the water became so high as to float the bridge and thus sweep it away. His securities were Ralph and John Logsden. In 1799, £26 12*s.* 13*d.* were further levied to pay the remainder due and to improve it with extra additions. This bridge was originally built in 1790 upon wooden piers, and by occasional repairing did good service till 1804, when the high freshets injured it. The Legislature, in 1805, authorized by special act a lottery for raising two thousand dollars to erect a bridge over Will's Creek and to purchase a fire-engine for the town. The commissioners to manage the scheme were George Hoffman, William McMahon, Thomas Thistle, Upton Bruce, and David Hoffman. The bridge was built, but it was swept away by the great flood of 1810, which inundated Mechanic Street. A ferry was then substituted. A rope was run across the creek from the foot of Baltimore Street, the ends being fastened to large trees, and a boat was attached to a ring slipping along the cable. In a year or two a new wooden bridge was erected, which stood until 1820, when another flood swept it off. The county authorities then entered into an agreement with Valentine Shockey to build a chain bridge, an invention of James Finley, of Fayette County, Pa., in 1796. There were two piers at each end of single locust posts, braced together at the top. The span was one hundred and fifteen and a half feet in the clear. The deflection of the two chains stretched from one side of the creek to the other was one-sixth of the span. Trautwine's "Civil Engineer's Pocket-Book" says, "The double links, of 1$\frac{3}{8}$-inch square iron, were ten feet long. The centre link was horizontal, and at the level of the floor and at its ends were stirruped the two central transverse

Notes for Honora O'Flynn:
[New file.ftw]

Several Documents state that Honora was kidnapped from Ireland and was brought over to America to become a wife of one of the settlers. Honor O'Flynn was mentioned in old records as an Irish girl of great piety, and it was through her that the Catholic element appears in the Durbin line.

Family lore handed down through generations was of a beautiful Irish girl named Honor O'Flynn who was kidnapped from Ireland, brought to America and married a Logsdon.

Honora was a beautiful and vivacious Irish girl who was kidnapped in Ireland and brought to Maryland by a sea captain for barter. She was bought by William Logsdon and later became his wife. Most of the kidnapped girls were traded for tobacco .

Honora was a pious Catholic and it was through out her that the Catholic faith appears in the family line.

George may have had brother named Edward Brown. After his marriage they settled in Pipe Creek, Frederick County, Md. The last seven children were obtained from "The Genealogical Magazine" and no attempt was made to determine the order of their birth. George and Mary Stevenson Brown lived on adjacent farms to Dugal McQueen.

Mary Stevenson, daughter of Edward b. bef 1662 England & Mary (King) b. ca. 1662 and d. 1739, and b. Sater Home Garden, Stevenson of Baltimore Co. MD. On LDS Ancesteral File reference suggests that Mary King b. 1690 was the daughter of Richard King b. 1640. Mary Stevenson was sister to Richard King Stevenson. She was b. 1709 (one reference suggests birth was in 1716), Baltimore Co., MD, m. George Brown ca. 1724. Mary's siblings were: 1.) Edward, who married Susanna Tracey (b 1702 in Anne Arundel Co, Md) ca.1724. Edward left a will in Anne Arundel Co. 9 Jun 1760, On the 30th day of May 1752 - Edward and others were witnesses to the will of John Boring (Baltimore Co. George Brown. was born in 1690 in Nottinghamshire, England, and died 2-24-1770. He married Mary about 1714 (?) in Maryland. Mary is the daughter of Edward Stevenson and Mary King. From: Delnora Stevenson rch1@bright.net

Edward Stevenson came to USA before 1716 from either England or Wales. From: Mrs. D.J. Stevenson aslinc@bright.net

Edward Stevenson had patented land 256 acres called, but unproven, "Edward and Wills Valleys Hills", just one of the orginal tracts he owned and that daughter Mary inherited it. In 1727, George Brown petitioned the court, saying he had not received his wife's share of the estate of her father, Edward Stevenson, who died Jan. 1718. Distribution being handled by Henry Sater, who was now married to widow Stevenson. He was not distributing the estate properly. Sater, when summoned to appear before the court, replied that he was so troubled with boils that he could not ride to court, but would appear as soon as possible (Box 33, folder 15 in the Maryland Hall of Records. this land which Mary (Stevenson) Brown inherited is in what is now the Greenspring Valley, just outside of Baltimore, MD. This information was given to me by other Brown family researchers. I have Edward as born abt. 1655 in England, and married Mary King 1685. Mary (Stevenson) Brown inherited land from her father's Rachel Brown, the daughter of George Brown and Mary Stevenson, was born in 1742 in Maryland. She married Michael McGuire and they were the parents of (6.2) Luke McGuire who married Margaret O'Hara. She died on May 1, 1818, in Cambria County, Pennsylvania. Her will is on file at the Cambria County. Will Book Vol.1 Page 26-27. Ebensburg, Cambria County, Pennsylvania. Capt. Michael McGuire was a Capt. in the revolutionary war. In his later years he and Rachel Brown McGuire migrated his family to the Allegheny Mountains of PA as the first white settlers there at McGuire's Settlement which is now Loretto. His family was responsible for bringing a Catholic priest to the settlement and making it a safehaven for them during a time of unacceptance.

Rachel and Michael had the following children: Mary, Luke, Henry, Richard, Katrence, Rachel, Ruth, Appelma, and Michael.

One source on the Rootsweb message boards suggests that Joshua's son Joshua's son Captain Oliver Brown took part in the Boston Tea Party.

Joshua Brown, son of George and MARY (STEVENSON) BROWN, was born abt 1748 in MD, and died Abt 17 Sep 1832 in ,Frederick Co., MD. He may be the same Joshua Brown who married Susanna 15 Aug 1771 at St. John & George, Baltimore Co., MD. All indications are that he lived at "Brown's Delight" on Cobbs Branch of Little Pipe Creek, Westminster district, (later referred to as "Brown's Plague"), Frederick Co., on property which he inherited from his father's estate.

Possible children of Joshua Brown are:

i.Samuel W. Brown, born 14 Apr 1774 in ,Frederick,MD; died 25 Jun 1840 in Franklin Twp, Columbiana, OH (66y, 2m, 11d). He married Susannah Bef. 1798 in ,Frederick,MD; born Bet. 1775 - 1776 in ,,MD; died 1859 in Franklin Twp, Columbiana, OH (age badly worn). Samuel and Susannah settled on Range 4 Town 14 Section 10 of Franklin Twp, Columbiana Co., Ohio, in 1807.

✓ii.Oliver Brown, born Abt 1774 in ,Frederick,MD.

iii.Joshua Brown, Jr., born Abt 1777 in ,Frederick,MD.

iv.Daughter Brown, born Bef. 1790 in ,Frederick,MD.
v.Daughter Brown, born Bef. 1790 in ,Frederick,MD.
vi.Daughter Brown, born Bef. 1790 in ,Frederick,MD.

What I am looking for is listed below:
1. Marriage record for JOSHUA Brown and SUSANNA on 15 Aug 1771 in St. John & George, Baltimore Co., MD. I need to know her maiden name.

2. A Will for JOSHUA Brown who died Abt 17 Sep 1832 in ,Frederick Co.,MD. If he left a Will, I need to know the Liber and page and the address of where to send for a copy of the Will.

3. A marriage record for SAMUEL W. BROWN to SUSANNAH, before 1798, Frederick Co., MD. I need to know her maiden name, etc.

4. SAMUEL W. and SUSANNAH's first three children were born in Frederick Co.: MARIA, b. 1798; a daughter (name unknown) born before 1800; JOSHUA b. 8 Jul 1800; and SARAH b. 21-DEC-1802. If baptism records exist, they would be valuable to my research.

5. From the 1790 Census record, it is believed that JOSHUABrown had 3 sons under 16 and 3 daughters. A JOSHUA BROWN and SUSANNA had two sons (per LDS-IGI files): Oliver Brown, born Abt 1774 in ,Frederick,MD; and Joshua Brown, born Abt 1777 in ,Frederick,MD. If baptism records exist for any of JOSHUA and SUSANNA's children, they would be valuable to my research (especially SAMUEL W.).

Although I don't have any of the following Family Tree Maker CDs, my index shows the following information and the CD number. If any of you have any of these CD's, I would really appreciate a lookup:

CHAPTER II #139216

TIMOTHY TERRELL

Genealogists have expended much time in research for the parents of Timothy Terrell, father of Robert, Joseph and Timothy whose births are recorded in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co., Va.

In a Terrell history written by David Terrell, in 1783, the statement is made that Timothy was a brother to Richmond and William. This history was taken to Ohio by Benjamin Terrell, son of David, in 1833.

From many sources comes the statement that Timothy was the third son of Timothy, brother of Richmond and William. His oldest brother is said to have been born in 1647, another brother in 1650 and Timothy, Jr., in 1656. Timothy, son of Robert and Jane was baptized January 24, 1631/2. If the above data is correct, he would have been 16 when his first son was born. Instances of the kind are of record, but are very rare. One fact that may substantiate this record is that neither John nor Robert mentions him in their wills, but neither do they mention any of his children. This would also lead to the belief that he was not living, or had otherwise disappeared from the family circle.

Another attempt at the solution of the problem is that he was the second son of Sir Toby Terrell, brother of Robert of Reading, father of Richmond and William.

No proofs have been submitted for any of the foregoing propositions. They are inserted with the hope that they may provide a clue to the positive identity of Timothy's parents.

Owing to the destruction of many of the records of New Kent, King and Queen, King William, and Hanover Counties, much information regarding the family has been lost. The descendants of Richmond Terrell lived in Louisa, Hanover, &c, Counties, and some notices of them are given in the William and Mary Quarterly, xiii. 263-5. The Registers of St. Peter's, New Kent, contain entries of the baptism of two sons of Timothy Terrell, viz.:—Robert, on 25 December, 1697; and Joseph, 31 December, 1699.

In the "Terrell Trails" summer 1996, it states,"It is highly probable that the Timothy who married Elizabeth Foster in Virginia and had sons Robert in 1697 and Joseph in 1699 was the posthumous son of Timothie of All Hallows." There is no positive proof of this, and I have him primarily under Richmond Terrell, and then under George Tyrrell and the royalty line.

Dan Brinson of 'Terrell Trails' in an e-mail shares the following: "The sad truth is that most of the people of that day could not read and write. The only "trails" they left were when the married, baptized children, bought or sold land, and occasionally were mentioned in church minutes when they died. "The TYRRELL FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY of England has recently found wills which (at least to my satisfaction) disprove the generally accepted ancestry to generations earlier than Robert of Reading. These wills are of a family of TERRELLS at Hagbourne England. All seem to be engaged in the "rag trade", ie, one is a broad weaver, and Robert of Reading was a tailor. These wills name brothers, etc., including Robert. "Members of the same SOCIETY have concluded that Timothy who came to Virginia was not descended from Robert, but from a Timothy who died in England before he was born. Don Terrill, president of the TERRELL SOCIETY OF AMERICA, INC. maintains an extensive database and has pointed 1216.0 out that none of the known descendants of Timothy named a son Richmond. Don also frequently points out that most of the descendants of Timothy adhere to the TERRILL spelling while most of the descendants of Richmond and William adhere to the TERRELL spelling.

Ruth; I have the father of Timothy born 1658 as Richmond Terrill son of Robert Tyrell and Jane Baldwin ma. July 29, 1617 in Reading, Eng.. My story is Richmond and his brothers Robert and William came to VA abt. 1656. My grandfather was Charles Marion Terrill ma. Rebecca Shockley, lived in Belle, MO buried in Bland abt. 1943. Rebecca died in abt.1934. He comes down from Robert I b. 1697 and and his sons Edmund and William. I believe he is a son of Reuben III and Frances Lacy ma. Feb. 8, 1854.

Four patents were issued to Thomas Sharpe and his daughter Susannah. Two were adjoining at the mouth of Beaverdam Creek and the Little River, and the other two at the mouth of Hollowing Creek. The first three, for Thomas, were in 1716 and Susanna received hers in 1723, Thomas having died in 1720. Abraham Spencer and his wife Susanna [Sharpe?] appear to have sold a part of that land to Joseph Terrell in 1735. Tracing Terrell's land may confirm that it was the same land granted to either Susanna or to Thomas (Susanna being an heir), confirming the identity of Abraham's wife. Also, other Sharps are reported in the county in various census returns and other miscellaneous documents.

William Hall of Hanover County to obtain a pension for service in the war of the revolution. He was born May 22, 1759 near Terrell's Tavern (now Teman, near Beaverdam)

William TERRILL (of Timothy and Elizabateh Foster) was born about 1694. He married Nancy Ann DANIEL.

Dicken says that he is listed in tithables in Orange Co. VA in Constable James Pickett's district in 1738/9. There is also a William Terrill who was granted 600 acres of land lying on the branches of the Rappidan in Spottsylvania Co. on 3 Oct 1734 (Land Book 15, p. 352). Dickens says that there are an Archibald Terrill and a Presley Terrill who are mentioned in the Spottsylvania records. It is supposition that these two are sons of William, primarily from family word of mouth. In the same Constable James Pickett's tax rolls of 1738 is listed Thomas Wayland, the original Germanna immigrant.

Nancy Ann DANIEL was born about 1695. She married William TERRILL. They had the following children:

M i Presley TERRILL was born about 1746 in , Orange Co., Virginia. He died about 1834 in , Woodford Co., Kentucky.

Disputed Election: Orange County, 1741 / http://www.shifletfamily.org/PS/1741_Oelec.html

In the wake of the controversy over alleged voting irregularities in the recent presidential election, it's worthwhile to remember that disputed elections have a long history in America. By now, many of us have heard about the startling similarities between the contentious presidential elections of 2000 and 1876. However, Orange County has its own contribution to the annals of contested elections: the 1741 contest for Orange County Burgess, which occasioned a full-fledged legislative investigation and resulted in both of the county's Burgesses being unseated and expelled from office. Robert Slaughter was found to have been "not duly elected" as the result of questionable polling practices (including physical assaults and related disruptions perpetrated by his supporters). A separate investigation identified Henry Downs as a former indentured servant and felon who had fled Maryland (where he was "guilty of many scandalous Practices" and had been convicted of "stealing one Sheep, of a white Colour") before reinventing himself as a member of the Virginia gentry. (See Journals of the House of Burgesses of Virginia, 1742-47, pp. 7, 11, 13, 16, 48, 50-51, 53, 69).

After a new election, George Taylor was seated as a Burgess for Orange County; the name of the second new Burgess is not documented. After the 1742-1747 Assembly was dissolved, Taylor and John Spotswood were the winning candidates n the subsequent election, for the 1748-1749 Assembly.

Election disputes due to legal challenges, irregularities at the polls, fraud, and even occasional election day "riots" can be seen in the records of the Virginia Assembly right from the first Assembly in 1619. Below we present the report of the investigation of the 1741 Orange County election as recorded in the proceedings of the House of Burgesses:

(Friday, June 4, 1742)
Mr Conway, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, reported, That the Committee had had under their Consideration, the Petition of Mr. Thomas-Wright Belfield, to them referred; complaining of an undue Election and Return of Mr. Robert Slaughter, sitting Member and Mr Henry Downs, lately expelled from this House to serve as Burgesses, in this present General Assembly for the County of Orange; and the Depositions of divers Witnesses as to the subject Matter of the Petition, taken and returned, pursuant to the Resolution of this House; and have agreed to a Report. That it appeared to the Committee, from the said Depositions, that Mr Robert Slaughter, Mr Henry Downs, Mr Thomas-Wright Belfield, Mr Thomas Chew, Mr Zachariah Taylor, Mr William Russell, and Mr James Wood, stood Candidates for the Election; and that the Poll was opened on Friday the Twentieth Day of November last, about Twelve of the Clock. That as soon as the Poll was opened, John MacCoy, Honorius Powell, John Snow, and Timothy Terrill, and several others, throng'd into the Court-house in a riotous Manner, and made such a Disturbance, that the Sheriff and Candidates were obliged to go out of the Court-house, 'til the House was clear'd, and the people appeas'd: And that the said Mr Chew, whilst he was on the Bench, called for a Bowl of Punch, and had it brought to him; upon which, the Sheriff stay'd the Poll, and said he would not have any Punch drank on the Bench, but wou'd have a fair election; to which Mr Chew replied, he would have Punch, and drink it, and that the Sheriff should not hinder him. That as soon as the Tumults were appeas'd, the Candidates and Sheriff return'd into the Court-house, and proceeded in taking the Poll; Mr Jonathan and John Newport, the Under-Sheriff, at their Desire and Permission, standing at each of the Court-house Doors, with drawn Swords across the Doors, in order to let the Voters pass in and out quietly and regularly in their polling. That after the Under-Sheriff was placed at the Door, one Mr John Rucker came to the Door, and demanded Entrance, which he had; and then the said Rucker threw the Under-Sheriff and another Person headlong out of the Doors; and when the Under Sheriff recovered his Post, the said Rucker insisted to clear the Doors, so that everyone might have free Entrance, and seized the Under-Sheriff's Sword with both his hands, endeavouring to break it, which the Under-Sheriff prevented, by drawing it through his Hands. That then one John Burk came to the said Rucker's Assistance, and laid violent Hold on the Under-Sheriff, who was rescued by the By-standers./That towards Night, Mr Gibson quitted his post at the Door, and immediately the people throng'd into the Court-house in a drunken riotous Manner, one of them jumping upon the Clerk's Table, and dancing among the Papers, so that the Sheriff was unable to clear the Bar, or the Clerks to take the Poll: Whereupon the Candidates desired the Sheriff to adjourn the Poll 'til Eight of the Clock the next morning; which he refus'd to do, unless the Candidates would give him Bond to indemnify him, saying, that by Law he was oblig'd to Compleat the Election on the day appointed, or to return the two foremost Candidates as Burgesses; and several of the Candidates agreeing to give such Bond, the Under-Sheriff, by Direction of the High-Sheriff adjourned the Poll 'til Eight of the Clock next Morning; and thereupon a great many of the Freeholders who had not voted, returned home; and Mr Chew and Mr Belfield went to Mr Belfield's house, near the Court-house, desiring Mr Russell to see Justice done them in their absence. That when the Sheriff had prepared a Bond ready for the Candidates signing, Mr Russell carried it to Mr Belfield' s, and offered it to Mr Chew and Mr Belfield to execute, who refused, saying the Poll was adjourn'd, and their Friends gone home. That when the said Russell returned to the Court-house, and the Sheriff understood that the Candidates would not sign the Bond, he caused Candles to be lighted about Eight of the Clock at Night, and opened the Poll; and thereupon Mr Russell, with several of the Freeholders, went into the Court-house, desiring the Sheriff to clear the Bar, and suffer those Freeholders to be polled; which he refused, and immediately proclaimed Mr Slaughter and Mr Downs duly elected, to serve as Burgesses for Orange County; notwithstanding Mr Russell, in Behalf of himself and Mr Belfield, forbid him so to do. And that a great many of the Freeholders returned the next Morning according to the Adjournment, in order to give their Votes, and were disappointed. It also appeared to the Committee, that the said John Rucker did, before and during the Time of the Election, give several large Bowls of punch amongst the people, crying out for those Persons who intended to vote for Mr Slaughter to come and drink of his Punch; and that the said Rucker stood at the Court-house, and kept out those who were Mr Belfield 's Friends and after the Election was over, confessed he had won several Pistoles upon Mr Slaughter's being elected the first Burgess. Whereupon, upon the whole Matter, they had come to several Resolutions, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table.

NOTE re Elizabeth:

In "Footprints in the Sands of Time" (1900), Grayson Co. historian Dr. A.B. Cox wrote that James Cox married "the Widow Terrell."

"The Widow Terrell" was probably the widow of Timothy Terrill of Ashe Co., NC., who was killed by Indians while exploring in Tennessee in 1781. Her first name (Elizabeth) and birth date (Feb. 24, 1753) are reportedly from a Bible that is (or was) in the possession of Mrs. W.H. Welch of Lansing, MI. According to the Terrill family, Timothy's wife remarried and lived in Grayson Co., VA. Some of the family later moved to Kentucky. (SOURCE: Terrill Website by John Terrill Wayland Jr.)

There is an LDS Ancestry File which states that the wife of James Cox was Elizabeth, last name unknown, b. Feb. 24, 1753. Note that is the same as the b.d. in the Terrill records for Timothy's wife.

Some sources (including, in the past, myself) have said that Elizabeth was Elizabeth SEXTON but it turns out this may be incorrect. There is a James COCK who married an Elizabeth Sexton in Grayson Co. in 1800, but according to some researchers, he was the son of Andrew COCKE (not Cox). Also, the marriage is about 25 years too late. James COX's wife, the "widow Terrell," may have been Elizabeth ROBERTSON of Fort Chiswell, VA, daughter of William Robertson and Elizabeth Crockett. This is an assumption based on the proximity of the Robertson and Cox families as well as the fact that James and Elizabeth Cox named their youngest son James Robertson Cox. (Thanks to Jerry Cox for this information).

State of Virginia
Grayson County

m. Elizabeth 1216.71A

On this 24th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open Court, before the Justices of the Court of Grayson now sitting JAMES COX a resident of Grayson County & State of Virginia aged 69 years & 7 months, who being first duly sworn according to Law, doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under CAPT JOHN COX at the age of 15 or 16 and assisted in building a fort on New River, near the mouth of Peach Bottom Creek, in the year 1778 and from that time until the year 1780 he acted as an Indian Spy for the said CAPT JOHN COX, and from his intimate knowledge of the country, was upon every occasion sent as a pilot to conduct those who were unacquainted with the mountains, in safety to where the different parties had their encampments. The tories about this time or about the time the British were invading North & South Carolina, became very troublesome in the county where he was (having but very few neighbours who were not tories) and those, with those of the adjoining State of North Carolina, would frequently assemble themselves & overrun the country. The declarants father, the aforesaid CAPT JOHN COX, ENOCH OSBORNE & his family, BENJAMIN PHIPPS, PETER HOUK, & WILLIAM HARDIN were the only whigs who would render any assistance when required. In this situation, surrounded by tories, the declarant and a few others had to combat the whole neighbourhood, and when they found themselves too weak, declarant was sent as an express [?] to Col. Benjamin Cleveland who was stationed on the Yadkin River near where the town of Wilksboro has been since built, to inform him of the fact that the tories were collecting in large bodies in the mountains shortly after his return from Col. Clevelands camp he was taken prisoner by the tories who intended to take & deliver him to the British, but in the mean time Col. Cleveland and Majr Jone [?] had joined their forces and overtook the tories at a place called the big Glade, now in Grayson County Va. The tories when they discovered the whigs determined to seek safety by flight and in their terror forgot the declarant who availed himself of the opportunity and immediately run with all speed to the whigs and informed them of what the tories had done, the whigs then pursued them, wounded some and took others prisoners whip'd or flogged several severely, & hanged one man where the declarant now lives.

After this THE DECLARANTS FATHER CAPT JOHN COX being on an expedition against the Indians, the tories under a Capt. Green made another ascension into the mountains and the declarant raised his fathers company and pursued the tories under Green, & killed & made prisoners of Green & his entire company. Green afterwards died of his wounds, and only one of the said company survived; this was a brother of the said Green, who afterwards enlisted in the Regular army of the United States. Sometime after this affair, a certain Capt. Roberts, of the tory party, came into the neighborhood with a company of Six Hessians, and this declarant with Majr Love pursued them into Carolina near the head of new River, determined to overtake them, but Capt Baker of North Carolina had heard of them, got in before the declarant & his party, overtook, killed & wounded the whole party except Roberts, their Capt, who made his escape. This declarant does not now recollect the precise time he was engaged in the War of the revolution, but he is very certain that he served under HIS FATHER CAPT. JOHN COX, and Majr William Love, as an Indian Spy, for the term of 2 years and that he was engaged under the same officers, against the tories for 2 years more making in all 4 years service.

NOTES

In "Footprints in the Sands of Time" (1900), Grayson Co. historian Dr. A.B. Cox wrote that James Cox ma
"the Widow Terrell."

"The Widow Terrell" was probably the widow of Timothy Terrill of Ashe Co., NC., who was killed by Indian exploring in Tennessee in 1781. Her first name (Elizabeth) and birth date (Feb. 24, 1753) are reportedly f
Bible that is (or was) in the possession of Mrs. W.H. Welch of Lansing, MI. According to the Terrill family, Timothy's wife remarried and lived in Grayson Co., VA. Some of the family later moved to Kentucky. (SO Terrill Website by John Terrill Wayland Jr.)

There is an LDS Ancestry File which states that the wife of James Cox was Elizabeth, last name unknown
Feb. 24, 1753. Note that is the same as the b.d. in the Terrill records for Timothy's wife.

Who was Elizabeth, widow of Timothy Terrill? Some sources identify her as Elizabeth SEXTON, but there definitive evidence. The marriage records of Grayson County, VA, show a James COCK who married an Elizabeth SEXTON in Grayson County in 1800, but this is about 25 years too late.

The "widow Terrell" may have been Elizabeth ROBERTSON of Fort Chiswell, VA, daughter of William Ro and Elizabeth Crockett. This is an assumption based on the proximity of the Robertson and Cox families as the fact that James and Elizabeth Cox named their youngest son James Robertson Cox. (Thanks to Je Cox for this information).

Some researchers believe that Elizabeth SEXTON was James Cox's second wife. The evidence is circumstantial, but there were several other marriages between the Cox and Sexton familes in Grayson C
For example, George Sexton had two daughters who married two sons of James Cox: Judith Sexton who John Cox, and Mary Ann Sexton who m. Solomon Cox. Other researchers, however, believe that the Ja
COCK who married Elizabeth Sexton in 1800 was the son of Andrew COCKE (not Cox) of Grayson Count

William Daniell was serving as Justice in Middlesex County, VA, June 2, 1684, and aided in taking the Military Census of that county, December 23, 1686.

He was a witness to the will of Thomas Williams in Middlesex County, VA. The will was dated July 30, 1683: proved in Court on October 6, 1684. His name, as witness, was signed D-a-n-i-e-l-l .

He was a witness to the will of Christian Robinson, made January 27th, 1692: proved in Court March 6, 1693. Robinson had married the widow of Major Robert Beverley. In the will Robinson designates him as his "loving friend, Captain William Daniel" and bequeaths to him a ring and names him as an executor. Robinson refers, also, to his "loving God daughters, Agatha, and Catherine Daniel, daughters of Captain Daniel" bequeathing them one cow and one calf each.

The fact that he ceased his Church, military and political activities about 1696, and that he did not appear as a witness to prove Robinson's will lends support to the belief that he may have become physically inactive about that time.

1. William DANIEL Captain was born about 1625 in England. He died on 20 Feb 1697/1698 in Middlesex County, VA. William signed a will on 8 Oct 1694 in Middlesex Co., Va..

It is noted that the members of this family emigrated from England to the Northern Neck of Virginia in the 1640's. (Compilers note: In an article written about Richard Tivia Daniel, a grandson of John and Mary Keen Daniel, it is mentioned that one Peter Daniel, an ancestor, emigrated from Scotland to Middlesex County, Virginia, America, in 1656. John and Mary Daniel were members of the John Daniel of Brunswick Co., Virginia family and this obscure reference to Peter opens up all kinds of possible connections.)

William Daniel, Sr. received land patent 1672 in Middlesex Co., Va. (SALTERR@aol.com). William appears in the records of Christ Church Parish Register with the birth of a son, Richard Daniel, 30 September1678. The will of William Daniel is dated 8 October 1694 and was presented in court, in Middlesex County, Virginia, on 3 October 1698, by Jno. Walker and Wm. Downing.

There is a significant lineage for Captain William Daniel in Broderbund's World Family Tree, Vol. 5, #873, but one must be careful with this file as it does not refer to a source and it appears to have inaccuracies. There is no connection of William's line with the Daniel line of Wigan, Lancaster Co., England. Several years of professional research has failed to turn up any proof of William's origins.

Col. William Daniel of Wigan was married to Dorothy Forth. They had two sons, William and Henry, who died childless.

The following is from Heinemann, Family 1, 1949: "William Daniel; 1673et seq. a William Daniel continues of record in Middlesex Co., VA, where he died in 1698."

---- Any good genealogy dept., of any large city in the U. S. should have this book.

MANY, MANY of our Daniel family found in Middlesex Co, Va. in late 1600s thru 1800, appear in this Church Registry. It no longer existed by 1812 but by that time, courthouse records were being kept. The Christ Church of Middlesex Co, Va. attempted to record not only BIRTHS, DEATHS AND MARRIAGES of free whites, but also same data for many of their slaves. While it existed, it was more useful to those of us researching our family than courthouse records would have been. For example, it gave the name of child, date of child's birth and names of both parents...what a blessing that was for me, for late 1600s up to mid 1700s when my Daniel family lived in this County. This is how I was able to document the progenitor of my Daniel line: Capt Wm. Daniel (widow Jacobed), their son William Jr, William's son Obadiah, etc. Even with such a great book, supplementing this information with wills/deeds and such, is a must due to the Daniel family habit of naming their kids the same thing at each generation. We have to watch out for such stuff as Capt. William Daniel died not long before his son, William Daniel Jr (both left wills, thank goodness). There were other 'William Daniel' men (and as our previouse mail), also numerous men named Robert. My particular branch left for Goochland Co, Va. ca 1740s along with some Moseley "in-laws" too. Joyce (Woodruff) Terrana, Burleson, Tx.

William married (1) UNKNOWN about 1664.

Some researchers have assigned Dorothy Forth as the first wife of this William, but the William (William Daniel of Wigan Co.) who married Dorothy died and is buried in England. (Ref : Daniel charts from the "English Visitations of Lancashire, 1623 and 1664") Side Note: Theses visitations are very questionable and should be taken for what they are worth.

William and UNKNOWN had the following children:

+ 2 M i William , Jr. DANIEL was born before 1664. He died on 29 May 1723.

+ 3 M ii Robert DANIEL was born before 1666. He died on 27 Dec 1720.

William married (2) Jochabed SMITH. Jochabed was born in 1646 in England/Virginia?. She died in 1694/1698 in Christ Church, Middlesex County, VA.

The surname Smith is mostly unproven.

William and Jochabed had the following children:

4 F iii Katherine DANIEL[1,2,3,4].

Katherine married Robert PERROTT son of Richard PERROTT on 25 Mar 1706. Robert was born on 25 Oct 1685 in VA. He died on 13 Dec 1737.

Robert's father, Richard Perrott, was the first male child born of English parents in the Rappahannock River Section of Virginia.

5 F iv Mary DANIEL[1,2] was born[3,4] in 1651/1675 in England. She died[5,6] on 12 Sep 1678.

Mary married UNMARRIED.

+ 6 M v Richard DANIEL was born on 30 Sep 1678. He died in 1727.

+ 7 M vi James DANIEL was born about 1680. He died before 4 Oct 1748.

+ 8 F vii Agatha DANIEL was born on 6 Mar 1683/1684. She died on 22 Aug 1721.

9 M viii John DANIEL[1,2,3,4] was born[5,6,7,8] on 20 Sep 1686. He died[9,10,11,12] on 20 Sep 1686 in Infancy.

10 F ix Ann DANIEL[1,2] was born in 1688. She died[3,4] on 16 Nov 1739 in Christ Church Parish, Middlesex Co., VA..

Ann married Curtis PERROTT on 3 Sep 1714. Curtis was born on 19 Aug 1698 in VA.

11 F x Elizabeth DANIEL[1,2,3] died[4,5,6] on 10 Dec 1720.

Elizabeth married George CHOWNING on 6 Feb 1714/1715. George died on 18 Dec 1726.

4. William DANIEL Captain was born 1625 in of Wigan, Lancashire, England, and died Feb 20, 1697-98, Christ Church Parish, Middlesex Co., VA Debbies genealogy page reference suggests date of death was 26 Aug 1678 in ,Middlesex, Virginia. Note: Descendants of William Daniel, Sr., http:// www.familytreemaker.com/, 16 February 2001. Immigrated to Virginia 1650. Resided on the plantation Jemeco. Will of 8 October 1694 recorded in Middlesex County, Virginia, Will Book 1, pp. 120-121. Ten children.

   Daniel family genealogy is given in Tyler's Historical Quarterly and reprinted in Genealogies of Virginia Families (from Tyler's Quarterly), vol. 1, pp. 480-545. [This work is basically correct but overlooked some Daniels in Middlesex County, Virginia.]

   Norman Wendell Daniels, Direct Descendants of William Capt. Daniel, http://familytreemaker. genealogy.com, 16 February 2001. Life dates 8 April 1625 - 26 August 1678.

   Daniel family genealogy is also given in Robert Neville Mann and Catherine Cleek Mann 1959, Middlesex, Virginia, Daniel Descendants. Son William received a land patent of 115 acres. He is recorded in the parish register of Christ Church beginning 2 June 1684. He served as a captain in the Middlesex County Militia. His will names children Robert, Richard, James, Agatha, Katerine, Elizabeth and Ann (the four daughters apparently under age).

   Daniel Genealogy Notes, http://members.nbci.com/ _XMCM/janicekmc/daniel.htm. This source notes that much of available Daniel family genealogy is not correct. William's father is not known. There is confusion with a William Daniels of Massachusetts. Etc., etc. This site gives William's will in full, naming wife Jocebed and eight children: William, Robert, James, Richard and underage daughters Agatha, Catherine, Elizabeth, and Ann.

There is so much written and questioned about this marriage of Wm. Morton to Ann Batchellor. The wills of Westmoreland Cty, VA 1654-1800 and the wills of Richmond Cty,VA will Book 5, p.510 are the places to go to find out more about Ann Batchellor. Re: the second marriage report of Ann Mothershead-"The Mothershead Family" compiled by Marie Ray Davis pub. 1975 is one document that I located that clarified the family for me. John Mothershead of Westmoreland Co, Va was the father of Brooks, George, Alvin and others. There seem to be no records that Alvin was ever married. The will of Alvin, Richmond Cty, VA Will Book 5, p.261 is explicit in what he gives to Wm. Morton's children, he was their godfather. There seems to be no documentation that Wm. married twice - Ann Mothershead (2)

Ann Mothershead to Willam MORTON prior to 1740 [source: Genealogies of Virginia Families From The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Volume IV Healy - Pryor; indexed by Toby Drews; Genealogical Publishing Co; 1981; Chapter: "The Morton Patriarchs of Virginia" by Daniel Morton, M.D. of St. Joseph MO] It should also be noted that Alvin MOTHERSHEAD, had extensive land transactions with William MORTON and in Alvin MOTHERSHEAD's Will of 1734 (see below) filed in Richmond County VA, he left land to William MORTON's children.)

It is my personal opinion is that the Ann MOTHERSHEAD referred to above was NOT born a Mothershead, but was actually Ann BATCHELOR, daughter of Mary and Thomas BATCHELOR/BATCHELDER. I can find nothing yet to prove that William MORTON married into the MOTHERSHEAD family. My personal opinion is that many years ago another researcher jumped to the conclusion that Ann "must" have been born a Mothershead simply because Alvin MOTHERSHEAD, in his Will of 1734, left land to Ann and William Morton's children, including Alvin's GODSON, George MORTON. However, I believe that if there was an actual blood relationship to Ann, then that familial relationship would have been mentioned in Alvin's Will, not just the term "Godson". If you can prove what Alvin's relationship really was to Ann and William MORTON, I'd really appreciate it if you'd email me! :)

Thomas II was born about 1684 in New Kent County, VA. Thomas Lacy II b ca 1683/4 New Kent Co., Va.) Planter. Practically nothing is known of him. There is a record in the Bible which belonged to Rev. William Sterling Lacy, taken from earlier records in the Bible of his father, stating that Thomas II married Ann Burnley; no date shown but it is supposed to have been about 1704/6 in New Kent Co., VA.

The parentage of Ann Burnley is not known. Reputedly the family was English and French. There are a few records of Burnleys but none go back as far as Ann who was probably born about 1688 or 1690. She may have been a sister to one John Burnley so is credited with being born about 1670; in fact, she could have been a daughter. There was one John Burnley who returned to England in 1771 leaving a will in Virginia and making another in England in which he devised a considerable estate. In this will is mentioned brothers Zachariah Burnley, Hardin Burnley, Richard Burnley and sisters Elizabeth Duke, Keziah Duke, and Ann Littlepage and sons of a deceased sister, Judith Meriweather, who married James Meriweather. He does not mention a wife or children. This John, who was a merchant, was no doubt the son of John, supposedly born ca 1670, and may have been a cousin or uncle to Ann. He was not a brother, else he would have mentioned her in his will. It is most interesting to note that Zachariah Burnley held 880 acres of land in Bedford Co., Va., which he sold to Thomas and Elliott Lacy (sons of Thomas Lacy and Ann Burnley), and to Thomas Deen in 1758. This transaction will be discussed in the section on Elliott Lacy. Authenticated records of the names of all of the children of Thomas and Ann are lacking, but the names of three sons are known, Thomas (III), William, and Stephen. The names of the others, proven by circumstantial evidence, are Elkanah, Nathaniel, Elliott and tentatively Phoebe. There may have been others, especially daughters, of whom we have no knowledge.

The Legend of Thomas Lacy and the Pirate

The story of Thomas Lacy capturing a pirate, reputedly Blackbeard, has come down through the generations. The furthest back it goes is to the Rev. William Sterling Lacy, a man of outstanding character and the source of much correct information on the family. This story has been suspect because of the claims that it was the pirate, Blackbeard, who was captured and slain. This could not possibly be because Edmond Drummond, a.k.a. Edward Teach a.k.a. "Blackbeard" was born 1680-1690 and was killed 22 November 1718 in a fight with Lieut. Robert Maynard and company.

The incredibly true story has now surfaced, much of it consistent with the important facts in William Sterling Lacy's version. It was found by Gene Lacy doing an on-line search in the Virginia Colonial Records Project on the Homepage of the Library of Virginia. The Library spent the years between 1955 and 1985 visiting more than one hundred libraries and archives in Great Britain, Ireland, and France to survey the collections. They subsequently obtained microfilm on 14,704 Survey Reports, and acquired 963 reels of microfilmed documents. It was among these documents that the story of Thomas Lacy and the pirate surfaced.

First we present the story as told by William Sterling Lacy. This is taken from Hubert Wesley Lacey's book, "The Thomas Lacy III Family of Hanover and Buckingham Counties, Virginia".

LACY. ORIGINAL IS IN THE POSSESSION OF ALFRED P. JONES, M..D. OF ROANOKE VA.

Passing through the upper end of Luta Prairie about the year 1828 or '29, I stopped at the house of old Mr. Wm. Rice; he said he was 85 or 86 years of age, and brother of Rev. David Rice, one of the first Presbyterian Ministers of Kentucky. His mind was unimpaired, his memory remarkable and he was esteemed a consistent Christian man. He told me that when a small boy, he saw my ancestor who emigrated from Wales, and was then residing in Hanover Co., Va., remarking that he was one of the oldest and tallest men he ever saw; his name was Thomas Lacy. He told me his history was very peculiar, that when a young man he embarked on board a vessel from Wales with other emigrants, with a view of settling in Virginia; that during the voyage he was captured by a notorious pirate who went under the familiar name of Black Beard, but whose name was Taike; that every passenger on board was made to walk the plank with the exception of Thomas Lacy, who the pirate swore was too fine a looking fellow to be drowned and that he would impress him into his service and make a noble pirate of him. A short time after the pirate put into Ocracoke Sound, and cast anchor on a desolate coast, where he was in the habit of trading with some lawless accomplices. A man of suspicious character, I think by the name of Minnis, applied to the Governor of Virginia, then residing on Jamestown Island, to aid him in fitting out a large Merchant Vessel and collecting a large number of desperate adventurers with a view of capturing the pirate. He was induced to do this, from the fact that a very large reward had been offered by the British Government and several of her colonies for the capture of the pirate.

It seems that Minnis was acquainted with the habits of Black Beard and knew at what time he would be on the coast. The vessel was fitted and crew collected. Immediately on entering Ocracoke Inlet the vessel was so fitted to appear almost a wreck. Taking advantage of a favorable wind and tide she sailed slowly under ragged sailes and crippled masts to where the piratical vessel lay, only four or five men on deck making signals of distress as they approached the pirate. All the men, completely armed, hid under the hatches of the vessel. The pirate seemed amused at her slow approach, supposing they had her entirely in their power. The piratical vessel was anchored over a half mile from shore. At this time nearly half the crew were on shore trading as above mentioned. As soon as she reached the pirate she was grappled and drawn up alongside of her. Instantly all the hatches were thrown up and armed men in large numbers rushed on the deck of the pirate. At this instant Thomas Lacy drew his cutlass and shouting with trumpet-voice, "I am a true man. I am a prisoner", began to cut down the pirates on the right and left. This circumstance increased their panic and threw them into some confusion so that they were quickly overcome by superior numbers. Not one would surrender and every one was slain. Black Beard recognized Minnis and cursed him as a traitor and was soon after killed.

They then proceeded with their prize to Jamestown where the good Conduct of Thomas Lacy being reported to the Governor, he gave him a share of the prize money, and a tract of land on the frontier in which is now Hanover Co., saying he would make a fine Indian fighter. In a few years after Thomas Rice sailed from Wales and settled in the same neighborhood of Thomas Lacy. Thomas Lacy married his daughter to whom he had been engaged before leaving Wales. This Thomas Rice was the ancestor of this William Rice who gave me the above narrative. Signed: William S. Lacy

FROM THE COLONIAL RECORDS PROJECT-LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA

Survey Report No. 4385

13 May 1700 This document contains 21 depositions sworn before the Court of Oyer & Terminer for the trial of pirates in Virginia before Peter Beverly, Clerk of Arraigns. Some of the depositions are sworn by individual mariners, others by groups of mariners from different ships captured by Lewis Guittar. All ships were outward bound from Virginia, except the Pennsylvania Merchant, which was inbound from England. On 17 April (1699) the BALTIMORE was captured; on 18 April the GEORGE of Pennsylvania bound for Jamica. The master of the FRIENDSHIP of Belfast-Hans Haniel-was killed when the pirates fired on his ship. On 28 April 4 ships were captured within the Cape of Virginia including the PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT, and the INDIAN KING of Virginia and the NICHOLSON. The PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT WAS BURNT. The crews taken prisoner were confined in the hold of the pirate ship which was call LA PAIX (PEACE); some other being made to throw cargoes of tobacco and other goods to Lyn-Haven by the pirates. On 28 April Captain John Alread, Commander of H.M.S. ESSEX having heard of the pirates' exploits came ashore and informed H. E. Francis Nicholson H.M. Governor General of Virginia and Captain Passenger of H.M.S. SHOREHAM that there was a Pirate in Lyn-Haven Bay. Whereupon captain Passenger and His Excellency, together with Captain Alread and Peter Hayman Esquire, went aboard H.M.S. SHOREHAM and in coming out of the James River engaged the Pirate ship. Captain Guittar fought under a blood red flag. Peter Hayman Esquire was slain. After an engagement which lasted 6 to 8 hours John Lympany, a passenger from the PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT, was ordered by Lewis Guittar to swim aboard the SHOREHAM to inform H. E. the Governor that there were English prisoners aboard his ship and that they and the ship would be blown up unless H. E. was prepared to grant Quarter to Guittar and his men if they surrendered. The Governor gave his promise. About 124 pirates were taken prisoner and some 25 to 30 pirates were slain. Between 40 and 50 English prisoners were liberated.

Survey Report No. 4378

Part I contains two documents 17 and 18 relating to charges of Piracy against Lewis Guittar and others and 18 also relates to a charge of Piracy against David Evand and Turlagh Sulivan and others.

8 November 1700. The warrant for the execution of Lewis Guittar and members of his crew for Piracy upon the High Seas.

21-21 October 1700. Not of Judgment at Sessions, sentencing Lewis Guittar and a number of his crew to death.

Survey Report No. 5918

An Admiralty memorial, dated 12 September 1701, recommending an allowance of 23 shillings a month for 5 months to Thomas Lacy and William Woolgar for the capture of the French pirate Lewis Guittar, within the Cape of Virginia.

Survey Report No. 6672

Lords of the Admiralty to the Navy Board. 17 September 1701. By direction of the Lords Justices, their Lordships ordered the Navy Board to pay Thomas Lacey and William Woolgar each five months pay as A.B. of the Royal Navy as a gratuity for their voluntary service on board H.M.S. SHOREHAM, Capt. Passenger, in her action with a pirate ship off the Capes of Virginia.

Black Beard recognized Minnis and cursed him as a traitor and was soon after killed.

They then proceeded with their prize to Jamestown where the good Conduct of Thomas Lacy being reported to the Governor, he gave him a share of the prize money, and a tract of land on the frontier in which is now Hanover Co., saying he would make a fine Indian fighter. In a few years after Thomas Rice sailed from Wales and settled in the same neighborhood of Thomas Lacy. Thomas Lacy married his daughter to whom he had been engaged before leaving Wales.

This Thomas Rice was the ancestor of this William Rice who gave me the above narrative.

Signed: William S. Lacy

FROM THE COLONIAL RECORDS PROJECT-LIBRARY OF VIRGINIA

Survey Report No. 4385

13 May 1700 This document contains 21 depositions sworn before the Court of Oyer & Terminer for the trial of pirates in Virginia before Peter Beverly, Clerk of Arraigns. Some of the depositions are sworn by individual mariners, others by groups of mariners from different ships captured by Lewis Guittar. All ships were outward bound from Virginia, except the Pennsylvania Merchant, which was inbound from England. On 17 April (1699) the BALTIMORE was captured; on 18 April the GEORGE of Pennsylvania bound for Jamica. The master of the FRIENDSHIP of Belfast-Hans Haniel-was killed when the pirates fired on his ship. On 28 April 4 ships were captured within the Cape of Virginia including the PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT, and the INDIAN KING of Virginia and the NICHOLSON. The PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT WAS BURNT. The crews taken prisoner were confined in the hold of the pirate ship which was call LA PAIX (PEACE); some other being made to throw cargoes of tobacco and other goods to Lyn-Haven by the pirates. On 28 April Captain John Alread, Commander of H.M.S. ESSEX having heard of the pirates' exploits came ashore and informed H. E. Francis Nicholson H.M. Governor General of Virginia and Captain Passenger of H.M.S. SHOREHAM that there was a Pirate in Lyn-Haven Bay. Whereupon captain Passenger and His Excellency, together with Captain Alread and Peter Hayman Esquire, went aboard H.M.S. SHOREHAM and in coming out of the James River engaged the Pirate ship. Captain Guittar fought under a blood red flag. Peter Hayman Esquire was slain. After an engagement which lasted 6 to 8 hours John Lympany, a passenger from the PENNSYLVANIA MERCHANT, was ordered by Lewis Guittar to swim aboard the SHOREHAM to inform H. E. the Governor that there were English prisoners aboard his ship and that they and the ship would be blown up unless H. E. was prepared to grant Quarter to Guittar and his men if they surrendered. The Governor gave his promise. About 124 pirates were taken prisoner and some 25 to 30 pirates were slain. Between 40 and 50 English prisoners were liberated.

Survey Report No. 4378

Part I contains two documents 17 and 18 relating to charges of Piracy against Lewis Guittar and others and 18 also relates to a charge of Piracy against David Evand and Turlagh Sulivan and others.

8 November 1700. The warrant for the execution of Lewis Guittar and members of his crew for Piracy upon the High Seas.

21-21 October 1700. Not of Judgment at Sessions, sentencing Lewis Guittar and a number of his crew to death.

Survey Report No. 5918

An Admiralty memorial, dated 12 September 1701, recommending an allowance of 23 shillings a month for 5 months to Thomas Lacy and William Woolgar for the capture of the French pirate Lewis Guittar, within the Cape of Virginia.

Survey Report No. 6672

Lords of the Admiralty to the Navy Board. 17 September 1701. By direction of the Lords Justices, their Lordships ordered the Navy Board to pay Thomas Lacey and William Woolgar each five months pay as A.B. of the Royal Navy as a gratuity for their voluntary service on board H.M.S. SHOREHAM, Capt. Passenger, in her action with a pirate ship off the Capes of Virginia.

Conclusion: Thomas Lacy was listed as a sailor from one of the ships that was captured on the 28th of April 1699. Of the three ships captured, only the Nicholson was reported as leaving crew behind in its attempt to escape from the pirate. The above report makes it clear that Thomas Lacy served on the Shoreham during the battle. Thus, we conclude that he was a seaman aboard the Nicholson, was left in port in the hasty departure, volunteered to serve on the Shoreham and received his reward for this service.

4.) William WILLIS was born about 1670 in Richmond, , Virginia. He died before 1717 in Richmond, , Virginia. William married Sarah about 1708. John Terrill Wayland had his wife as Bridget Robinson, and his father as being Henry Willis. The Willis GED I received from Bill Ikerd disproved that and I have entered the line here as he had it.

Chapter VI

William Willis

William Willis was the second son of John Willis Sr. The name of his mother is not known. Also unknown is whether William, John Jr., Charles, Susannah, and Mary Willis were full or half siblings. It is possible that William had other brothers or sisters who were named in his father's will as "all my sons and daughters," although none have been found. William died intestate in 1716 in Richmond County leaving a widow, two sons, and a daughter.

Much of the following data on William and his wife Sarah was not reported by George Loeffler in his article on the Willis family in the 1982 issue of the Willis–Gordon–Garnett and Allied Families Association Journal, but Loeffler's article provided me with invaluable background information as a basis for my research.

Although William was still a relatively young man when he died, his name appears in several Richmond and King George County documents. Proofs of his identity were given in Chapter I and will not be repeated here.

If William was at least twenty-one years old when his father deeded to him in 1701, he was born by 1680. He died intestate before 5 December 1716 when his widow, Sarah, and his brothers John and Charles, all of Richmond County, posted bond in the amount of 100 pounds sterling for the administration of his estate.[1] The bond was recorded in a deed book which is somewhat unusual. According to the Order Book, John Coombs [Combs], John Green, William Pitman, and William Reed or any three of them were directed to appraise William's estate after taking oath before William Thornton, Gent., or any other justice of the peace "as also Sarah Willis the administrator for her true discovery thereof."

On 3 April 1717 the following is recorded in Richmond County Will Book 3, page 306, as transcribed from a microfilmed copy of the original:

> In obedience to an Order of Richmond County Court bearing date the fifth day of December, 1716, we the subscribers being first sworn by Col. William Robinson, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid, did on the (28th?) Day of March 1717 meet at the house of William Willis, deceased, and did () and there apprize all and () the estate of the aforesaid William Willis in (manner) which was presented to our view as the following articles sheweeth.

Several items in the inventory are not readable, but it included 7 barrows and sows, 2 shoats, 10 pigs, an old mare, a gelding, 4 cows and 3 yearlings, 2 large heifers, 2 young bulls, a gre[illegible]oat, several items of fabric, furniture and bedding, 2 hireling servants "which are to serve until 25th of December next," a parcel of pewter and a "razer," looking glass, 2 guns, saddle, cooper's tools, lumber, spinning wheel, and other items. It was signed by Sarah Willis as administrator, Wm. Reeds, William Pittman, and John Green.

An initial appraisement of William Willis's estate was returned and recorded in County Court on 3 April 1717, the same day that John Combs' estate inventory was presented.[2] A second inventory for tobacco and a hog was reported to the Court by appraisers William Pittman and John Green on 6 July 1722 by Sarah Hutson [Hudson] in the amount of 33.10.6 and ordered recorded.[3] Inventories by appraisers William Reede [Reeds], Willm. Pittman, and John Green amounting to 74.11.10 ½ were ordered recorded in Court on 3 August 1722 at which time Sarah Hutson [Hudson], administratrix of Henry Wood, deceased (Sarah's second husband), also presented an inventory and appraisement of Wood's estate for 173.15.11 ½ which included one servant, one Negro woman, and some old books and was signed by Thos. Strother, Wm. Strother, Rowl[and] Thornton, and William Howard.[4]

No guardianship records were found for Sarah's children by William Willis or for her son Henry Wood Jr. although Henry Wood's eldest son, William, was bound out to Richard Butler (see below).

Sarah was married four times and widowed each time. Fellow researcher Newman A. Hall, who descends from Sarah and her third husband, Rush Hudson Sr., estimates the birthdate of Sarah's last child, David Hudson, as circa 1727.[5] Consequently, she was probably born between 1685 and 1690 and was between seventy and seventy-five years old when she died in 1761. As her will names seven surviving children and three grandchildren, it will be given before continuing with the records for William Willis.

The following is a transcription of Sarah's will dated 18 June 1760 and presented in Court on 28 May 1761 from a microfilmed copy of the original in Orange County Will Book 2, pages 310–311.

An inventory of the estate of Sarah Turberville, deceased, was returned by her son Rush Hudson and recorded in Orange County on 26 November 1761.[7] It included one Negro named Winney, furniture, three head of cattle, one trunk and chest, and some old books.

Returning to Richmond County, the first record which I found for a William Willis was as a witness on a deed in 1694 from John Willis Sr. to John Willis Jr. as given in Chapter I. William and John Jr. also witnessed John and Matilda Willis's Power of Attorney to Nathaniel Pope on that date. While this may have been a different man named William Willis, it could have been John Sr.'s son. A person did not have to be of legal age to act as a witness. It could also have been the William Willis who was found in the Westmoreland County records during this time (see Chapter X).

On 26 April 1701 John Willis Sr. deeded the remaining 161 acres of his 1669 patent of 261 acres to his unmarried son William, John (Sr.) having deeded the other 100 acres to his eldest son John Jr. in 1694.[8] John Sr. entailed the tracts to his sons in both deeds with the words "unto my said son and his heirs legally begotten or to be begotten of his body forever" and giving their wives, if they should marry, lifetime occupancy rights. If either died without issue, the tracts were to revert to the legal heirs of John Willis Sr. When William died intestate about a year after his father's death, William's eldest son John (who was underage) became heir of his father's, portion of his grandfather, John Sr.'s, patent, although he held the 161 acres en tail and his mother Sarah had lifetime occupancy rights. When William's brother John Jr. died without issue in 1728, William's son John also became heir-at-law to the 100 acres (part of John Sr.'s 1669 patent) which John Sr. had given to his eldest son, John Jr., in 1694. Deeds for the sale of this tract in 1737 are given in full in Chapter I.

Three documents containing William Willis's name are found in the Richmond County records between 1703 and 1705. The first of these is an item in the County Court Orders on 2 February 1703 when Catherine Cullins, servant to William Willis, was ordered to serve her master eight months past her stated indenture for having a child out of wedlock.[9] William appeared on behalf of his father John Willis and "confest judgment to the Church Wardens of St. Maryes Parish for the use of said parish for five hundred pounds of tobacco in caske, the same being the find of Catherine Cullins." This child was undoubtedly the Mary Cullins of John Sr.'s will, and Catherine Cullins was undoubtedly the same person as Catherine Pullen.

On 5 April 1704 William Willis "brought his information in court against John Willis for concealing Joseph Ducker, a tythable, contrary to the 7th Act of Assembly ... and the defendant (i.e., John) appeared and offering nothing material against the matter contained in said information, judgment (is) granted to said William Willis against said John Willis for the said Joseph Ducker according to the tenor of the said Act of Assembly."[10] It is unclear if this was John Sr. or John Jr., but the latter was more likely. As indentured servants were counted as taxable tithables, it was not uncommon for people to conveniently forget to report them, and many such infractions are seen in the county records. No other references to Joseph Ducker were found.

On 5 September 1705 Francis Thornton purchased 1,000 acres from John and Francis Wright. As shown above, the land was part of a 1,700-acre patent granted to Major John Washington on 1 June 1664 and adjoined John Willis Sr.'s 261 patent in 1669.

Washington sold 300 acres of his patent to William Freake and willed the remaining 1,400 acres to his daughter Ann who later became the wife of Maj. Francis Wright and the mother of John Wright. The parcel was located in St. Mary's Parish and in 1705 joined lands of William Willis, John Hawkford [Hauxford], Thomas Tippett, and Harrison's plantation.[11]

In 1709 William and Sarah Willis sold 12 acres, which was described as being part of John Willis's 1669 patent, to John Hauxford. Witnesses were Isaac Arnold and John Willis (although he is not identified as Sr. or Jr.). Sarah Willis gave her Power of Attorney to John Combs to release her dower and acknowledge the deed in Court. This was followed by a deed from John and Saint Hauxford to John Willis Jr. for 12 acres which was part of John Washington's patent of 1,700 acres. Witnesses to that deed were Isaac Arnold and John Pittman.[12] Hauxford's tract was undoubtedly part of the 300 acres which Washington sold to Freake whose widow married Vincent with the Vincents selling to Thomas Tippett and Tippett selling to Hauxford. The deeds indicate that the land being deeded by Hauxford in 1709 was in the southern portion of Washington's patent which abutted the western boundary of John Willis Sr.'s 261-acre patent.

In his will which was written in 1727 and proved in 1728, John Willis Jr. left the land which his brother had "exchanged with John Hauxford" to William Wood, the acreage not being given. This implies that John Jr. presumed to hold title to the 12 acres which William sold to Hauxford in 1709 because in 1727 both his brother William and John Hauxford were deceased. William Wood's records do not clarify the issue. In 1734/35 he sold two tracts to Rush Hudson Sr. who was then married to Sarah (the widow of William Willis and Henry Wood). One of the tracts was 100 acres which his father Henry Wood Sr. had purchased from John Hauxford and had descended to William Wood as his father's heir-at-law.[13] In 1746/47 Rush Hudson Jr., as heir-at-law of his father, sold four tracts to Francis Thornton, two being the above parcels his father bought from William Wood and one being "30 acres more or less" which was part of a patent to John Washington for 1,700 acres, etc.[14]

In 1761 Mary Coghill Willis Jennings' nephew Frederick Coghill sold 12 acres which John Jr. had purchased from John Hauxford to Francis Thornton (see Chapter V), so inconsistencies appear. As William Willis's tract was entailed by his father, I do not know how he was able to sell it and I have not found any other deeds which clarify this discrepancy except for the possibility that the John Willis who witnessed William's deed to Hauxford in 1709 was his father who approved the sale or "exchange." In 1737 William's son John sold the entire 261-acre patent to the Church Wardens, and no mention was made that any part of it was previously part of Washington's patent in spite of the fact that the deeds are very explicit.

Returning to earlier records for William Willis, in 1715 his father named William in his will and left his crop of Indian corn and tobacco to be divided between his sons William and Charles out of which they were to pay their sister Susannah and an unidentified Mary Gardner each five hundred pounds of tobacco. John Willis Sr. also stipulated that his son William and Isaac Arnold were to be the guardians of Mary Cullins, who was under the age of sixteen, and were to watch over her share of the estate which included the rent William Pullen was to pay for ten years on the ground he leased from John Willis Sr.

Because William died the following year when his children were still minors, it was necessary to shift the research to William's widow, Sarah, who has proved to be a remarkable woman. Although her maiden name has not been conclusively proved, she was undoubtedly the daughter of a neighboring family. I first thought that she might be the sister of Isaac Arnold. However, Hudson family researcher Newman A. Hall believes that Sarah was the daughter of David Rosser Sr. and his first wife Sarah Sherwood.[15] Several clues in deeds and wills seem to support Hall's thesis although the evidence is circumstantial rather than direct. It is ironic that more is known about Mary Coghill Willis Jennings' family, even though she left no surviving issue, than is known about Sarah's family when Sarah left many descendants.

Sarah's first three husbands died in Richmond/King George County—William Willis (who died intestate before 5 December 1716), Henry Wood (who died intestate before 6 July 1722), and Rush Hudson (who died intestate before 7 November 1735).[16] Her last husband, Edward Turberville, died intestate in Orange County by September 1750.[17] While Sarah did not own any land when she died in 1761, she received dower rights in each of her husband's estates.

Sarah and William Willis had at least two sons—John (who was identified as their eldest son in his 1737 deed to the Church Wardens) and William. Sarah's daughter Sarah Hawkins, who was named in her mother's will, was probably also the daughter of Sarah and William Willis. There is always the possibility that they may have had other children who predeceased them or other children who were not named in Sarah's will.

Confusion remains regarding William's birthdate. The fact that his father deeded to him in 1701 suggests that William was born by 1680, and the deed indicates that William was unmarried at that time. Land could be deeded to minors, but it was customary for title to be acknowledged again when the minor became an adult, and this was apparently not the case as no such record was found.

Family historian George B. Loeffler estimated that William and Sarah's son John was born circa 1709-10. Loeffler was a meticulous researcher and based his estimate on the fact that John married Elizabeth Plunkett in January 1734/35.[18] However, it is often difficult to distinguish between John (son of William) and his cousin John (son of Charles) in the records as both were born before 1715, both were orphaned as minors, and both became heirs of John Willis Sr. upon their fathers' deaths. To further confuse the issue, both married women by the name "Elizabeth."

However, the identity of our John Willis who sold his grandfather's patent to the Church Wardens and moved to Orange County is clearly established in the records. John, son of Charles, appears to have died intestate in King George County in 1753. Our John, son of William, died in Orange County in 1762. In addition, the name "Plunkett" was repeated by the descendants of William's son John of King George and Orange counties, but not in the lines of Charles Willis's son John.

More will be said about William and Sarah's children in Chapter IX, but a few comments are added here. Very little is known about William and Sarah's son William except that he accompanied the family to Orange County and was named in his mother's will. Sarah Hawkins, who was named in Sarah's will, appears to have been ? the wife of Benjamin Hawkins (son of John Hawkins who died in 1715/16 in Richmond County and wife Elizabeth). Benjamin Hawkins probably died circa 1770 and certainly before 1790 when his son William Hawkins deeded land which his father had willed to him to Lewis Willis, son of John Willis who died in 1762. Early deeds in both Orange and Culpeper counties contain many entries for the Willis, Hudson, and Hawkins families.

Because John Willis's land was entailed to his sons and William Willis died intestate, the tract automatically devolved to William's eldest son. However, Sarah had lifetime occupancy rights, so the family may have remained on the 161 acres in King George following William's death. Subsequent deeds show that her future husbands also owned land in the area and that they left a surprisingly good paper trail.

Sarah's name appears in the Richmond and King George records only when she and William Willis sold the 12 acres to John Hauxford, for the administrations of her first three husbands' estates, and for her release when her son John deeded to the Church Wardens, so it was crucial that the records of her other husbands (who were stepfathers of John and William Willis) be reviewed for additional clues about her maiden name and to learn more about John and William's early lives before migrating to Orange County.

Henry Wood was living in the Willis neighborhood prior to his marriage to Sarah and was called the brother of Susanna Butler, wife of Richard Butler, in a Power of Attorney (although the term could also have meant brother-in-law, stepbrother, or half-brother.[19] I once suspected that perhaps Susanna was the daughter named by John Willis Sr. in his will, but no documents were found which identified Susannah beyond her father's will.

Henry Wood had a son William by a former marriage. If he had other children, their names are unknown to me. It is very possible that Henry's son William was related to John Marks or one of the other men who leased land on the Rapidan River from the Spotswood executors in December 1734 (see Chapter IX).

In March 1712/13 Henry Wood Sr. bought 40 acres from John Kendall and his wife Grace in St. Mary's Parish, Richmond County, the tract joining land owned by Ralph Wormley, Esq., deceased on a run of Bald Eagle Neck.[20] As given below, after Wood's death this tract became the property of his eldest son, William Wood, who then sold it to Rush Hudson Sr. with it later falling to Rush Hudson Jr. as his eldest son and heir-at-law. Consequently it could be assumed that Sarah may have lived on this tract at some time before moving to Orange County.

County Court Orders show that in April 1713 the Richmond County Court dismissed a suit which Wood brought against John Pittman (or Pitman), the plaintiff not prosecuting. On 2 May 1716 Wood was awarded judgment against William Pitman, administrator of Augustine Blake, deceased, in the amount of 415 pounds of tobacco, although the matter was later dropped. On the same date Wood's petition for "tuition of an orphan boy named Benjamin Hawkins" was rejected after Richard Butler stated that John Haskins [Hawkins] and his wife Elizabeth, both deceased, had left their two youngest sons, Benjamin and James, to James Butler (brother of the petitioner Richard Butler), that James Butler was now deceased, and that the children were to be bound to Richard Butler until they were twenty-one with John Willis (undoubtedly John Jr., Sarah's brother-in-law) as Butler's security. In his will John Hawkins requested that his son William, not Benjamin, was to be placed with Henry Wood[21]. Witnesses of Hawkins' will in March 1715/16 were Isaac Arnold (who was also named as Hawkins' executor), Rebecca Butler, and John Suttle (or Settle). Benjamin Hawkins later ? married Sarah (Willis), assumed daughter of William and Sarah. Mildred Hawkins, daughter of Benjamin Hawkins and Sarah Willis, married first John Plunkett Jr. (brother of her sister-in-law Elizabeth Plunkett Willis) and second Capt. Isaac Rucker of Orange and Amhurst counties.

Henry Wood's petition for the administration of William Gough's [Goff's] estate was rejected in Court on 5 April 1716 with Thomas and Margaret Gough [Goff] being granted administration. John Hauxford, George Green, Richard Butler, and John Tayler were ordered to appraise the estate.[22] It is unknown why Wood petitioned for administration, but he must have been either a relative or a creditor. In August 1717 Henry Wood's two actions of debt against Charles Willis and John Pitman were dismissed without explanation, the plaintiff not prosecuting.

in December 1717, probably after Wood had married Sarah, John Hauxford and wi Elizabeth sold 100 acres to Henry Wood, plaisterer (or planter?), which Hauxford had obtained by escheat in 1704. The tract lay on Poultridges (Portridges) Creek and joined Hauxford, Francis Thornton, John Willis, and Tippett.[23]

Henry Wood was appointed surveyor of the roads from Foxhall's Mill to Gingoteague (Chingoteague) Creek in August 1718. On the same day John Willis (i.e., Jr.; Wood's brother-in-law) and Christopher Edrington were appointed surveyors from Gravelly Run to Crows Swamp. In 1719 and 1720 John Willis was made surveyor of roads from Chingoteague to the lower end of the parish, apparently replacing Wood.

Henry Wood's name is found in the Richmond County Orders several times as plaintiff in various suits. In November 1718 he sued Thomas James (husband of Mary Willis James) for 230 pounds of tobacco. James did not appear and judgment was granted to Wood. In 1719 Wood sued Mary Combs, executrix of the estate of William Combs, deceased, and was nonsuited when Wood failed to appear to prosecute. In 1719 the Court summoned Wood to answer charges that he sold liquor without a license. In March 1719/20 Wood dropped suits against Thomas James and Charles Willis, each for 773.5 pounds of tobacco "due by account."

Sarah and Henry Wood had a son, Henry, who was named in his mother's will in 1760 in Orange County although little is known about him. While a Henry Wood's name appears in several Orange County deeds, he seems to have lived in a different part of the county and I found no clues which prove that he was Sarah's son.

When Henry Wood Sr. died, his eldest son William (who was then underage) became his heir-at-law. In July 1722 Rush and Sarah Hudson appeared in King George County Court, stated that Henry Wood had died without making a will, and were granted administration of his estate with Rush Hudson, Neal McCormack, and William * Strother Jr. giving security in the amount of 200 pounds sterling.[24] William Strother, Rowland Thornton, William Howard, and Richard Tankersly were ordered to inventory and appraise Wood's estate after being sworn before Joseph Strother, Gent., or another justice. On that date Rush and Sarah Hutson (Hudson) also presented inventories for the estate of William Willis, Sarah's first husband, and they were ordered to be recorded on 3 August 1722.[25] William's inventory was probably an accounting to the Court as his son and heir-at-law, John Willis, was still underage. At the time Sarah still had dower rights in the estates of both William Willis and Henry Wood. Dower rights which she had as the widow of William Willis became Henry Wood's upon her marriage to Wood, and dower rights which she had as Wood's widow became the property of Rush Hudson Sr. when they married. It is easy to see how complicated some of these estates were because of entailed land, lifetime occupancy rights, dower rights, legatees, heirs-at-law, and remarriages.

On 3 August 1722, the same date that Henry Wood's inventory was recorded, Rush and Sarah Hudson and Aaron Thornley were summoned to appear at the next Court to answer a petition of Richard Butler.[26] In January 1722/23 Rush Hutson [Hudson] and wife Sarah were again summoned to appear in Court on Butler's petition. Although the cause is not stated in the County Orders, it may have been related to the estate of Henry Wood and his heir-at-law, William Wood. At the same time Rush and Sarah Hudson, as administrators of Wood (who was the assignee of a David Dickey), sued Archibald Douglas (?) for 400 pounds of tobacco due by bill. When Douglas did not appear in Court, judgment with costs was granted against his security Martin Sheffler.[27]

Whatever the differences between Rush Hudson and Richard Butler were, they appear to have been resolved in March 1722/23 after the Court appointed Butler as guardian of William Wood with Isaac Arnold as Butler's security,[28] and followed by Butler's sale of 30 acres in Hanover Parish to Hudson.[29] The tract included the plantation where William Hawkins was living and was part of Washington's 1,700-acre patent on the lower side of Bald Eagle Run adjoining George Green, Wm. Tippett, and Rowland Thornton.

In 1724 George Green sold 65 acres to Rush Hudson adjoining Hudson's other land, Richard Butler, Rowland Thornton, and Bald Eagle.[30] This tract was part of an 885-acre grant which was given to Green in 1708. In 1734 William Wood, who had moved to Orange County, sold the tracts of 40 and 100 acres which his father bought from John Kendall in 1712/13 and John Hauxford in 1717 to Rush Hudson Sr. who had married William Wood's stepmother. As Rush Hudson Sr.'s heir-at-law, Rush Hudson Jr. of Orange County sold four tracts to Francis Thornton, son of Rowland of Crows Swamp in 1746.[31]

In March 1729/30, on the motion of John Willis, Rush Hudson was appointed his guardian.[32] Orphans fourteen years of age and older could petition the Court for a specific guardian, so this John was born after 1708 and before 1715. On the same day a suit which had been brought by John Willis against Thomas Goff was dismissed. The identity of this John is not clear. The first John could not have brought suit as he was still a minor. The second John could have been either John Jr. (who filed suit prior to his death with it not being dismissed until after his death) or it could have been his nephew John, son of William.

Also in March 1729/30 the administration of the estate of William Hudson, deceased, was granted to his widow, Sarah Hudson, who with Rush Hudson gave bond for her administration.[33] This Sarah should not be confused with Rush Hudson's wife Sarah. The relationship between William and Rush Hudson is unknown to me.

Sometime in 1735 before his death (the pages of the Order Book being partially destroyed with the date missing) Rush Hudson, John Randall, Neal McCormack, and Maxfield Brown were appointed by the Court to appraise the estate of their neighbor John Green, deceased.[34] Green (son of the above George Green) had married Abigail Tippett, daughter of Thomas Tippett, and was the brother-in-law of Edmund Donahoe and William Tippett (see Chapter IV).

On 7 November 1735 Edward Turberville and his wife Sarah were granted letters of administration for Rush Hudson's estate. Benjamin Berryman, Gent., Thomas Thatcher, Isaac Arnold, and Neal McCormack provided bond in the amount of 600 pounds for administration of his estate.[35] John Wren, Thomas Bartlett, and William Marshall returned an inventory and appraisal on 5 December 1735 showing a total evaluation of 238 pounds 8 shillings 8 pence. The inventory included seven slaves, five beds, livestock, nearly 200 pounds of pot iron and 60 pounds "best pewter," cooper and carpenter tools, and other items commonly found in inventories at that time.[36]

The Court summoned Edward Turberville several times regarding the administration of Hudson's estate, and another inventory was recorded in April 1736.[37] The records suggest that probably embedded in Hudson's estate were pending settlements from the estates of John Willis Sr., William Willis, Charles Willis, John Willis Jr., Henry Wood, and John Jennings (who had all died within twenty years of each other), related guardianship accounts, and dower rights of Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville and Mary Coghill Willis Jennings.

In November 1736 Turberville's securities (Isaac Arnold, Neal McCormack, and Thomas Thatcher) petitioned the Court to be released from their bonds in Hudson's administration, and the Court appointed Capt. Joseph Strother, Samuel Skinner (Skinker?), and Thomas Turner to audit and settle the accounts and differences in the estates of John Jennings (who had married Mary Coghill Willis and died in Orange County) and Rush Hudson Sr.[38]

For the next two years there were a variety of actions recorded in the King George County Orders. John Willis sued Mary James and was awarded 910 pounds of tobacco. He also sued Mary Jennings, executrix of the will of John Willis (Jr.), deceased, and was awarded 3,288 pounds of tobacco from his uncle's estate. This may have been Charles' son. In 1715 John Willis Sr. had willed adjoining parcels to his son Charles and his daughter Mary James. Charles (who was deceased by 1725) and his wife Matilda were to have a life interest in the land, and it was then to descend to Charles' son John who was also a legatee of his aunt, Mary Jennings.

In June 1737 John Willis, son of William and Sarah, and his wife Elizabeth (nee Plunkett) sold his grandfather's 1669 patent of 261 acres to the Church Wardens of Hanover Parish (see Chapter I). On June 4, 1737, John Willis, his wife Elizabeth, and his mother Sarah Turberville all appeared in Court to acknowledge their deeds of lease and release and to release dower rights, suggesting that they were still living in King George County on that date. However, this does not preclude the possibility that in 1737 some of the family had already moved to Orange County to prepare for the transition and that the family was in the process of settling their affairs in King George.

According to King George County Orders, Edward Turberville was still administering Hudson's estate in September 1737.[39] In October John and Elizabeth Willis acknowledged a deed for 60 acres to Isaac Pitman (this John probably being the son of Charles based upon the description of the land in the deed).[40] The following month the Court noted that Rush Hudson's estate had been settled with the auditors' report to be considered at the next session on the motion of Zachary Lewis, attorney for Edward and Sarah Turberville.[41] The fact that the Turbervilles appointed Lewis as their attorney may indicate that they had already moved to Orange County and were unable to attend Court.

In February 1737/38 the King George County Court ordered Hudson's remaining undivided estate amounting to 342 pounds 12 shillings 8 pence (after debts and charges of 111 pounds 6 shillings 6 pence) to be distributed and Sarah's dower to be set apart.[42] By law Hudson's land descended to his eldest son, Rush Hudson Jr. Sarah's one-third dower would have been approximately 114 pounds and was legally Turberville's property as no prenuptial agreement was found. On the following day the Court Orders noted that judgment was granted to Jeremiah Murdock against William Wood (who was already living in Orange County) or Wood's security, John Willis, unless Wood appeared at the next session to answer the suit. Later King George County Court Orders have not been reviewed as of this date.

Besides family members, other neighbors who are named frequently in the documents for Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville in King George are John Hauxford, Isaac Arnold, Richard Butler, the Pitmans, George Green (and his heir-at-law, John Green), and William Marshall.

John Hauxford owned land adjoining William and Sarah Willis, and he was the guardian of John Plunkett whose daughter Elizabeth married John Willis, the son of William and Sarah. A brief sketch of John and Saints Hauxford has been given in Chapter IV.

Isaac Arnold's name is found on many of the documents for William Willis and his wife Sarah from the will of John Willis Sr. to Turberville's administration of Rush Hudson's estate, but no direct relationship was found. It is known that Isaac and his wife Margaret were given 40 acres by her father Thomas Goff in 1707/08 (see Chapter IV). This tract was undoubtedly part of either the 403 acres which Goff and Kendall purchased jointly with John Willis Sr. in 1687/88 or Goff's 1696/97 grant of 105 acres which adjoined John Willis Sr.

In November 1758 William Willis (son of William and Sarah) placed an attachment on the estate of an Isaac Arnold in Orange County, and James Arnold paid the debt to Willis in 1759.[43] While Isaac Arnold Sr. of King George County wrote his will in September 1757 and it was proved the following May, Isaac did not have a known son named James, and it seems doubtful that this was the man whose estate was attached by William Willis. Review of the records for the Arnold family continues because of their proximity to the Willises in both Richmond/King George and Orange counties.

The Butler connection to the Willis family is elusive, but a Christopher Butler witnessed John Willis Sr.'s deed to his son William in 1701, and earlier references to the Butler family can be found in other parts of this manuscript. If or how Christopher was related to Richard Butler or Caleb Butler is unknown. What is clear from the records is that Richard Butler and wife Susanna were neighbors to the Woods and Hudsons, that Henry Wood was related to the Butlers, and that Richard acted as guardian to both William Wood and Benjamin Hawkins who migrated to Orange County with the extended Willis family.

The Pitmans were also close neighbors and probably lived near Pitman's Landing which was identified on the 1737 Northern Neck survey map reprinted in King's volume, King George County Will Book A-1. Pitman's Landing was in the same general area as Greenlaw's wharf which is shown on the 1968 USGS Rollins Fork map.

In 1708 George Green received a grant of 885 acres in Richmond County (q.v.). The original grant indicated that this land was just west of Francis Thornton Sr. (i.e., the 1,000 acres which Thornton purchased from the Wrights which was part of Washington's 1,700-acre patent) and John Hauxford, and just east of Francis Slaughter's land. Green leased 100 acres of this patent to John Willis Jr. in 1709 and 65 acres to Rush Hudson in 1724, as well as parts which he either sold or leased to other people before he died. In 1750 John Green was identified as George Green's heir-at-law. I do not know if George Green was related to Richard Green who died in 1705 in Richmond County or to William Duff who died in 1745 in King George County and who left much of his land to his Green relatives (see below).

The Marshall family has not been thoroughly reviewed. However, a Thomas Marshall of Washington Parish, Westmoreland County, died testate in 1704 leaving his estate to his wife Martha (nee Sherwood, daughter of Phillip Sherwood), his son William, other unnamed children, and Elizabeth Rosser (to whom he gave a heifer).[44] If his wife remarried, David Brown Sr. and John Brown were to assume guardianship of Marshall's children. Witnesses were Edward Taylor, John Hearford (also given as Oxford), and John Taylor. Marshall's inventory was returned in August 1705 by Joseph Hemings, Michael Halbert, and Anthony Rawlins which suggests that Marshall lived just over the ridge as he sold 50 acres to Halbert on 1714 at the head of Mattox Creek adjoining John Piper. By 1705 Marshall's wife Martha had married Alexander Thompson who, with Hemings/Hemmings, is named in documents with Robert Frank Sr. of Washington Parish (father of Frances Frank who married John Plunkett, the ward of John Hauxford and the presumed father of Elizabeth Plunkett who married John Willis, son of William and Sarah).

There is little doubt that William Marshall, who died testate in 1748, was related to the Hudsons. His will names sons William, George, Rush, Hudson, and Merryman Marshall.[45] Hudson family researcher Newman A. Hall has speculated that Marshall's wife, Ann, was the sister of Rush Hudson Sr., but no proofs have been found.[46] In 1753 William Marshall (son of William) and his mother Ann sold 123 acres, which had been bequeathed by his father, to Thomas Turner with Ann to retain lifetime occupancy rights.[47] Turner's will in 1757/58 mentioned the tract. Also in 1758 Walter Anderson of Washington Parish, Westmoreland County, left George Marshall of Hanover Parish, King George County, a tract of 90 acres "excluding a burying place of half an acre excepted joining to the glebe land of Hanover Parish in said county."[48] In 1758 the Hanover Parish glebe was John Willis's 1669 patent. It appears then that the 90 acres which Anderson gave to George Marshall were probably part of the tract which Edwin Conway sold to John Anderson and which was part of Conway's resurvey which nullified much of John Willis Jr.'s and Walter Anderson's title to the 1690/91 Willis–Parsons grant as discussed in Chapters I–III.

In 1741 Newman Brown and wife Martha of Hanover Parish deeded 100 acres to William Marshall, the land having been given by deed of gift in Richmond County on 11 July 1711 by Francis Slaughter to Ann Hudson who was Slaughter's second wife and the mother of Martha, wife of Newman Brown.[49] Newman was the son of Maxfield Brown who died testate in 1745,[50] and the Browns were related to the Hudsons. In 1709 George Green leased 100 acres to John Willis Jr. adjoining Maxfield Brown who can be traced back to the will of Evan Morgan in 1684 in Old Rappahannock County (see Chapter IV).

A few notes about the Hudson family will be given here before continuing with the records for Sarah and her last husband, Edward Turberville. Rush Hudson Sr. was the son of Joshua Hudson and Elizabeth Rush. Joshua Hudson died in 1704 in Westmoreland County, his will naming sons John, Joshua, Caleb, and Rush Hudson and his wife Elizabeth.[51] Soon after Joshua's death, Chap(man) Dark [sic] deeded certain personal property for love and affection to Joshua's daughters Sarah, Ann, Elizabeth, and Margaret Hudson with Caleb Hudson and Cossom Bennett witnessing the deed.[52]

Newman A. Hall estimates the birthdate of Rush Hudson Sr. as circa 1695. However, Caleb and Rush witnessed their brother John Hudson's will in Westmoreland County in 1708, so I believe that Rush may have been born between 1685 and 1690. While a minor could be a witness, it was usually indicated in the record, and nothing was given to show that Rush was underage at the time. Sarah (—) Willis Wood may have been Rush Hudson's second wife. Very little is known about Rush before he moved across the dividing ridge from Westmoreland County to Richmond/King George County, but the records suggest a family connection to the Duffs and Greens and to Ann Hudson who married (as his second wife) Francis Slaughter of Richmond County.

On 7 June 1723 the King George County Court dismissed charges against Rush Hudson (who was married to Sarah at the time) for not attending church after Hudson stated that he was a member of the Quaker Communion.[53] It appears that Sarah belonged to the established church because she bequeathed a book, William Beverages's (Beveridge's) Sermons, to her daughter, and Beveridge was an Anglican prelate and author.

In Chapter VII it will be shown that William Duff, a wealthy Quaker, purchased land from Charles Willis (William's brother) in 1714/15 and 1719 and operated an ordinary (inn) in King George County. Duff died in 1746 leaving a lengthy will and giving much of his land in several counties to his Green family relatives.[54] The Greens were neighbors to the Willises in King George, and Duff's nephew, Robert Green, moved to Orange County where he died testate in 1748. Green's will named his uncle William Duff, deceased, and Duff's wife, Elizabeth.[55] One of Robert Green's executors in Orange County was Francis Slaughter who may have been related to the Francis Slaughter who appraised the estate of John Willis Sr. of Richmond County in 1715.

In her will Elizabeth Duff (William's widow) named her son Benjamin Rush, a

William Rush (who was deceased), Rush grandchildren, and Green relatives.[56] George H. S. King does not identify Elizabeth (—) Rush Duff in either of his books, but I suspect that she could have been related to Rush Hudson Sr. whose mother was Elizabeth Rush.

Edward Turberville, Sarah's last husband, was the first Clerk of the King George County Court and served in that position until August 1723. He was followed as County Clerk by Thomas Turner.[57] According to King, Turberville married first by 1 November 1704 Anne Size, widow of John Size (of Sise), by whom he had one child, Elizabeth, who married St. John Shropshire.[58] By 7 November 1735 Turberville had married Sarah (the widow of William Willis, Henry Wood, and Rush Hudson) by whom he had no issue. I have not been able to identify the connection between Edmund Turberville and George Turberville, a Justice in Westmoreland County, or George Turberville (called Capt. in 1726, Maj. in 1741) of King George County, but one undoubtedly existed. Also a William Turberville who is named in King George deeds was probably related.[59]

Although the exact date of their migration to Orange County has not been found, it is assumed that Sarah and her family moved there sometime in the 1730s, perhaps shortly after Sarah's son John Willis deeded his grandfather's tract to the Church Wardens in 1737. Willis family researcher George B. Loeffler stated that Sarah, Edward Turberville, Sarah's sons John Willis (and wife Elizabeth Plunkett) and William Willis, Sarah's sons by Rush Hudson, her daughter Sarah Hawkins, a brother of Elizabeth Plunkett (i.e., John Plunkett Jr. who married Mildred Hawkins, daughter of Sarah and Benjamin Hawkins), and the Shropshires moved to Orange County between 1734 and 1740.[60] Data in Chapter IX and related documents show that William Wood (Sarah's stepson) and John Jennings (second husband of Mary Coghill Willis) were in Orange County by 1734 where Jennings died in 1735.

Turberville died intestate in Orange County where his widow, Sarah, was granted letters of administration in November 1750 with Francis Moore, Gent., and William Willis (probably her son) as her securities in the amount of 600 pounds. An appraisal of Turberville's estate was taken on 6 October 1750 and returned on 28 February 1751/52 (total 334.14.11) with an additional inventory returned on 28 May 1752.[61]

On 15 March 1750/51 Walter Shropshire of Orange County deeded a slave named Winny, age about ten years, to Sarah Turberville in consideration of Sarah's relinquishing all right to the one-third or any part of the slaves belonging to the estate of her late husband Edmund [sic] Turberville. Witnesses were Alexander Waugh and George Gray. On the same day Walter gave Sarah a bond in the amount of 200 pounds for the above Winny.[62] In 1760 Sarah willed Winny to her son Rush Hudson and his children.

On 27 September 1751 Walter Shropshire executed a guardian bond for John and Ann Shropshire, orphans of John Shropshire, deceased, (probably Walter's younger brother and sister) with John Willis as his security.[63] An account of Turberville's estate was presented in 1752 with Walter Shropshire's guardian account settled on 17 March 1753.[64] In April 1753 William Taliaferro and Alex. Waugh, administrators, submitted a report of Turberville's estate which included money paid to Walter Shropshire as heir and guardian to the children.

Edward Turberville's grandson, Walter Shropshire, married Sarah (Willis), daughter of John Willis and granddaughter of Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville. Previous histories stating that Sarah Willis (daughter of John) married her "stepbrother" are incorrect. She married the grandson of her grandmother's fourth husband.

When John Willis, son of Sarah and William, wrote his will in 1761, he left Walter Shropshire one shilling and three pence and divided the rest of his estate between his other eleven children—William, Edmund Terrill (the husband of his daughter Margaret/Peggy Willis), John, Benjamin, Joshua, James, Reuben, Frances, Lewis, Moses, and Mary—with his wife Elizabeth to have a life interest in his estate.[65] Although Walter Shropshire and Margaret/Peggy Terrill were not specifically identified in his will, their names were confirmed with the other heirs in Willis vs. Willis, a suit involving the heirs of John's son Benjamin who died testate and without issue in 1810 in Orange County.[66] According to George H. S. King, Walter Shropshire and wife Sarah were both deceased by 1816.[67]

Finally, some comments will be offered regarding efforts to identify Sarah (—) Willis Wood Hudson Turberville. While the records provide ample identification of her four husbands, her date of death, and the names of her surviving children, unfortunately some vital information is missing, such as her date of birth, her parents, and the names of any siblings.

Dr. Newman A. Hall, with whom I have been privileged to share my research the past two years and who descends from Sarah and her third husband, Rush Hudson Sr., has developed an excellent kinship study which he calls "Ancestor Domains." Hall's findings, which I hope will be published someday, are too extensive to explore in this manuscript. However, he states that although each person's genealogy begins with a finite family element (mother, father, and child), the number of preceding ancestors is not always doubled because of certain factors such as marriages between cousins of different degrees or "within a community of families of limited size to which no external individuals are added."[68] Hall postulates that when such anomalies (my term) occur, then genealogical research "is essentially dependent on the history of groups of people rather than specific knowledge about individuals." I believe that Hall's theory reflects some of the problems we have seen in previous searches for the parents, siblings, and wife or wives of John Willis Sr., and for Sarah's maiden name. I also share his emphasis on the need to expand one's research to include the extended family or cluster (whatever one wishes to call it) because important strands are lost when research is limited to one individual. My emphasis on the extended family and community is obvious throughout this manuscript because I would not have found important new data without looking at collateral lines and neighboring land owners.

Based upon the premise that Sarah was the daughter of a neighbor, which is almost a certainty, I reviewed records for many of those neighbors. Fortunately, the computer facilitates such searches and makes it possible to focus on a specific time period. The years 1701 to 1710 are particularly important in identifying Sarah's family because it appears that William Willis was single in 1701, married soon after that, and was deceased by December, 1716.

By 1700 the Willis neighborhood was well-established. Adjacent or close neighbors or landowners included John Combs, Thomas Goff, Thomas Kendall, John Hauxford, Thomas Tippett, Isaac Arnold, William Underwood, and Nathaniel Pope. When records for each were reviewed and no primary evidence was found which identified Sarah, the search was expanded to a "second ring" of neighbors who were still close enough to be considered as possible candidates. Again, no proofs were found.

Based upon circumstantial evidence, Hall believes that Sarah was the daughter of David Rosser (who died by June 1698 in Richmond County) and Sarah Sherwood (daughter of Phillip Sherwood). Phillip Sherwood received a patent jointly with John Waight [sic] in 1666, and the following year Sherwood bought 300 acres from Peter Jett, the immigrant. Sherwood died by 4 September 1684 leaving four daughters: (1) Mary Sherwood who married Francis James before 1684; (2) Martha Sherwood who married Thomas Marshall before 1684 and secondly ca. 1705 Alexander Thompson; (3) Sarah Sherwood who married David Rosser after 1684 and before 1689; and (4) Ann Sherwood who married James Dabney after 1684 and before 1690. Phillip Sherwood's land was in Sittenburne Parish.[69]

Sarah (Sherwood) Rosser predeceased her husband, David Rosser, who was dead by 1 June 1698 when his widow, Margaret, was granted administration of his estate.[70] David Rosser left orphans Elizabeth, Sarah, David, and Mary who were placed under the guardianship of Francis and Mary James (their father's sister and brother-in-law).[71] Francis James died in 1721. His will names his wife Margaret, son Sherwood James, daughter Jane James, and his sister-in-law Martha Marshall.[72] Court Orders show that Francis James had another son, Francis Jr., who petitioned the Court for his filial share of his father's estate (which the Court dismissed based upon the father's will). Apparently Francis Jr. had been given land previously or was a younger son because under the laws of primogeniture the eldest son could not be disinherited. George H. S. King stated that Margaret, the second wife of David Rosser, and Margaret, the second wife of Francis James, were probably the same person.[73] However, no direct proofs have been found.

Whether Francis James was related to Thomas James (husband of Mary Willis) is unknown. To my knowledge none of the descendants in Sarah's line (with the exception of her youngest son, David Hudson) used the Christian name "David," and none used the names "Phillip" or "Sherwood" which is surprising because Sarah and her children seemed to follow traditional naming patterns.

Also little is known about David and Sarah (Sherwood) Rosser's daughters Elizabeth and Mary. David Rosser Jr., is believed to have married Ellenor Field, daughter of Abraham Field (Jr.) of Westmoreland County. Although there were connections between the Field and Hudson families in early Westmoreland County, those records will not be included in this manuscript except for a few selected items in Chapter X. Also not included are the records which Newman A. Hall and I found for Phillip Sherwood and David Rosser because of the inconclusiveness of the findings and the fact that my focus here is the Willis family.

My own personal journey with Sarah has been both exhilarating and sfrustrating—exhilarating because during the process she ceased to be a statistic on a lineage chart and became a very real person and a "usable memory" as described in the Introduction, but frustrating because of my failure to find proofs of the names of her parents. Hall's thesis that Sarah was the daughter of David Rosser and Sarah Sherwood may indeed be valid, but at this point any assumptions regarding Sarah's identity are based upon circumstantial evidence and are still open to examination.

As I imagined Sarah and tried to see life through her eyes, she became a symbol for me in many ways. Widowed as a young woman, twice again as a woman with small children, and finally as a grandmother, she endured with perseverance and grace, daring to move to a new area and to begin life again in a strange place in her later years. Her Christian faith sustained her, and she was wise enough in her old age to write a will—something which all of her husbands, including Edward Turberville who was once a Clerk of Court, failed to do. Although she did not have a lot of property or money to give her children and grandchildren, she left beloved treasures—a book of sermons, a chest, and a trunk. I will always wonder what was in the trunk; but

The above John Willis was born ca. 1709 in Hanover Parish, Richmond (later King George) County, VA, and was married to Elizabeth Plunkett on 17 January 1734/5 in St. Paul's Parish with the Rev. David Stuart officiating.

John Willis was the son of William Willis (who died before 1717 in Richmond/King George Co.) and wife Sarah _____, who married 2nd Henry Wood, 3rd Rush Hudson, and 4th Edward Turberville (see below).

It should be noted that Sarah _____ Willis-Wood-Turberville, mother of above John, wrote her will in Orange Co. on 18 June 1760 and that it was entered for probate on 28 May 1761 (Orange Co. Will Book 2:310-311). Her son John wrote his will shortly thereafter, on 25 November 1761, and it was produced for probate on 25 March 1762. His mother's will from a copy of the original:

John Willis (d. 1761-2) was a half-brother to Henry Wood (Jr.), David Hudson, Joshua Hudson, and Rush Hudson who were named in his mother's will, and John Willis undoubtedly grew up with them as well as with his own full siblings, William and Sarah (Willis). Apparently there were no children by Sarah's 3rd marriage to Edward Turberville, although Edward Turberville's grandson Walter Shropshire married Sarah's grand-daughter Sarah Willis, daughter of John d. 1761-1762. Steinert's comment on page 12 of her book that "Sarah Willis m. her step-brother Walter Shropshire" is incorrect. At this point there is no proof of any direct or blood relationship between Sarah Willis and Walter Shropshire. (For further information, see Loeffler.)

A summary of Sarah ____ Willis-Wood-Hudson-Turberville's three known families follows:

By 1st marriage to William Willis who d. before 1717 Rich/King Geo Co. VA:
1. John Willis b. 1709-1710, m. 1734/5, d. 1761-2 m. Elizabeth Plunkett
2. William Willis
3. Sarah Willis m. Benjamin Hawkins

By 2nd marriage (by or before 1717 to Henry Wood, res. Rich/King Geo Co. VA):

4. Henry Wood

By 3rd marriage (by or before 1722 to Rush Hudson, res. Rich/King Geo Co. VA):

5. David Hudson
6. Joshua Hudson
7. Rush Hudson (who had daughters Mary and Elizabeth and son Rush Hudson Jr. in 1760)
   Rush Hudson named as Executor in mother's will in Orange Co. in 1760

By 4th marriage (by 1735 Rich/King Geo Co. VA) to Edward Turberville who d. 1750 Orange Co. VA - no issue

Loeffler stated that Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis was probably the daughter of John Plunkett of Hanover Parish, King George Co. and that as John Plunkett with Isaac Arnold as co-bondsman was appointed administrator of the estate of Joseph Littlefield on 3 November 1721. Loeffler also said that John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, "a brother of both Hudson half-brothers, Sarah Hawkins, the Shropshires, and Edward and Sarah Turberville (John's mother) moved to what was then Orange County around 1734-1740.

In an attempt to compile data on the children of Sarah ____ Willis-Wood-Hudson-Turberville (who, for brevity, will be denoted as Sarah WWHT), the following is noted with corrections and additions welcome.

1. John Willis b. 1709-1710, m. 1734/5 Elizabeth Plunkett, d. 1761-2; apparently the eldest son of Sarah WWHT.

> Much has been written about the family of John Willis and Elizabeth Plunkett. Apparently all of John's children were born before their grandmother died. Sarah WWHT names son John in her will, but she does not mention any of his children. This may be due to the fact that John was still living when she died and his children being already provided for.

2. William Willis, dates of birth & death, and name of wife unknown. This line unresearched by previous family historians.

> William was born before 1717 (father's will) and was probably the second son of John Willis and Sarah WWHT. As William was a young boy when his father died, he was probably close to elder brother John and to his mother who both died in Orange Co. William was still living in 1760. Based on average longevity, he could have been living until the turn of the century, although he probably died prior to then.
> A William Willis was appointed surveyor of the highway in Orange Co. in November, 1750 (Order Book 5:284). In 1758 a William Willis filed an attachment against the estate of Isaac Arnold, and in 1759 James Arnold was ordered to pay (Orange Co. Order Book 6:447 and 6:456). These and prior references to the Arnold family suggest a connection between this William's descendants and those found later in Washington Co., KY (see separate file).
> This may be the William Willis who, with Francis Moore, Gent., provided security in the amount of 600 pounds for the administration of the estate of Edward Turberfield (sic) by Sarah Turberfield, widow, in November, 1750 (Orange Co. VA Order Book 5:284). Edward Turberville's estate was appraised by William Taliaferro and Alex. Waugh., and a Guardian's Bond for John and Ann Shropshire (orphans of John Shropshire deceased) was granted to Walter Shropshire (older brother of John and Ann) in September 1751 with John Willis (Walter Shropshire's father-in-law and eldest son of Sarah WWHT) as security.
> Most of William's nieces an nephews are known to have migrated to Kentucky. His nephew, William c1739-1833 (son of John) and many of his family moved to Adair Co. KY by 1805. Early Adair Co. tax records show that a man by the name of William Willis was taxed for 100 acres three years before William Willis (son/John) and his family arrived in the county. census is only a reconstructed tax list and very incomplete) indicates that there were three men by the name of William Willis in Adair Co. by then (one over 45 years and fitting the known profile of William, son of John, and supported by deeds) and one in Barren Co. also over 45 which has not been identified. There was also an unknown William Willis between the ages of 26 and 45 on the Washington Co. KY census.

3. Sarah Willis, about whom very little is known except that a daughter is named in her father's will (records now extinct) and that she is called Sarah Hawkins in her mother's will whose witnesses included Benjamin Hawkins, Jr.

A history of John Plunkett's family of Virginia states that a John Plunkett (brother of Elizabeth?) was born ca. 1710, married _____ Rosser (also seen as Prosser and Roosseau in the records), was probably in the group which migrated to Orange Co. between 1734 and 1740, and had at least 2 children:

1. John Plunkett b. ca. 1732, d. 1758 Orange Co. VA; John married Mildred Hawkins, daughter of Benjamin Hawkins and Sarah Willis. After John Plunkett's death in 1758, Mildred (Hawkins) Plunkett married Isaac Rucker.

2. Keziah Plunkett b. ca. 1735, m. 1753 David Hudson (son of Sarah WWHT and 3rd husband Rush Hudson?). David was named in Sarah's will 1760.

Part of the difficulty in identifying all of the connections between these families lies in the fact that Sarah WWHT (_____ Willis-Wood-Hudson-Turberville) probably married William Willis at an early age and was widowed very young. If Sarah was twenty when her eldest son, John, was born, she may have been able to bear children until 1732-1735. If she was sixteen when John was born, her childbearing could have extended until 1735-1740.

The Plunkett and Willis connections are further enchanced by the fact that both families moved to Orange Co. from Richmond/King George Co. and that there are documented ties between them and other families including Terrill, Hudson, Rucker, Towles, Garnett, Rogers, Arnold, and allied families of that time and place. It is a matter of record that many alliances of early colonists continued to span several generations and states as the families moved westward.

On 31 December 1760 Thomas Garnett (brother/Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis, wife of William Willis who was the son of John Willis and Elizabeth Plunkett) married Rachel Hawkins in Orange Co. Rachel was probably related to, if not the sister of, Mildred Hawkins who married John Plunkett. Loeffler states that Thomas and Rachel (Hawkins) Garnett probably moved to Jessamine Co., KY, by 1801 when his brother, (Rev.) James Garnett deeded 900 acres to him in Bourbon Co. (Old Kentucky Grants 3:379).

In 1771 Anthony Garnett (father of Thomas Garnett, Elizabeth (Garnett) Willis, and Rev. James Garnett) bought 700 acres from the Spotswood Executors, the land lying in Culpeper Co. and adjoining James Gaines, Sutton's line, Cedar Run Mountain, Hudson's line, and Garnett's "old lot" line (Cul. Co. Deed Book F:361).

In 1798 Polly (probably a nickname for Mary) Garnett, niece of the above Thomas Garnett and daughter of Rev. James Garnett of Culpeper Co., married a Reuben Hudson, who was undoubtedly related to the Orange Co. Hudsons.

Anthony Garnett's great-grandson, Robert Willis (1803-1886), who was the son of Isaac Willis 1774-1867 and wife Ann Garnett, and the grandson of Reuben Garnett 1753-1839 and Mary Twyman, married Emily Hudson on 14 April 1824.

Many of these families are also found in the Kentucky records after migration. One example recently found by this writer is Polly Hawkins who married Toliver Craig, an early Baptist preacher who was born in 1710 and who later resided in Orange Co., VA. Toliver and Polly (Hawkins) Craig had seven sons and four daughters. This family married into the Cave family of early Orange Co., and many of the group migrated to Kentucky where they were instrumental in establishing the Baptist church in early settlements. William Willis, son of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, entered land on the Dix River in Lincoln Co., KY, in 1780. He obtained the land as assignee of Lewis Craig (son of Toliver and Polly above) who was the assignee of a Christopher Hudson, but William lost the tract because of a prior claim, and no grant was issued. Some relationship between these people is suspected but has not been proved. For Craig data, see separate file.

4. Henry Wood, Sarah's son by her 2nd husband, Henry Wood, whom she married before 1717. The records indicated that Sarah and Henry Wood resided in Richmond/King George Co. VA and that he had died by July 1722 (Richmond Co. Will Book 3 and King George Co. Order Book 1721, 34:52). Consequently, their son Henry was probably born around 1718-1720 and died after June, 1760, when his mother named him in her will in Orange Co.

Although no other records have been found yet for Henry Wood, there are several references in early Kentucky records to the Wood family including specific reference to the descendants of a William Wood who migrated from Virginia to Green and Adair Counties in Kentucky where one descendant married into the Garnett family and others married into the Grant family.

5. David Hudson, Sarah's son by her 3rd husband Rush Hudson (Sr.), whom she married by 1722 and who died before 1835. David was still living in 1760 when his mother wrote her will and was probably the David Hudson who witnessed Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis's deed to her orphaned children in Orange Co. in November, 1764 (see above). David Hudson may also have been the husband of her niece, Keziah (Plunkett) Hudson.

6. Joshua Hudson, Sarah's son by her 3rd husband Rush Hudson (Sr.), etc. Joshua and Rush Hudson furnished security in the sum of 2,000 pounds for the administration of John Willis's will in 1762 with William Willis being certified as Executor (Orange Co. Order Book 6:615). This writer has no further information on Joshua.

7. Rush Hudson (Jr., who became "Sr." upon death of his father), probably born between 1722 and 1735, and may have been the eldest. Sarah's will refers to Rush's daughters Mary and Elizabeth and to Rush's son, Rush Hudson Jr., in her will, and the only grandchildren named by Sarah. She also names her son, Rush Hudson, as her executor and willed the bulk of her estate to him.

Sarah may have lived with her son Rush after her husband's death until she married 4th Edward Turberville. In any event, the extended family appears to have been a close one.

Mary Willis, youngest daughter of John and Elizabeth (Plunkett) Willis, is said to have been born ca. 1759. Present research suggests that she married first Rush Hudson, Jr. This Rush Hudson could have been the grandson mentioned in Sarah WWHT's will as her son, Rush Hudson, would have become "Sr." when his father died, thereby making his son "Jr." One source states that Mary (Willis) Hudson married secondly Richard Price and migrated to Kentucky (perhaps Todd County) by 1816.

Another Rush Hudson reported in related families married Mary Terrill, daughter of Robert Terrill 1697-1786 Orange Co. VA and Mary Foster. In his will, Robert Terrill mentions his daughter Mary Hudson and grandson Rush Hudson, leaving slaves and one equal part to Mary and the following bequest to grandson Rush:

> I have partly agreed with my Grandson, Rush Hudson, for the tract of land I have in Pamunkey containing 500 acres for which he was to give me the sum of 110 pounds current money, now if he complies with the bargain I then desire that my Executors may execute deeds to him for the said land and the money arising from the sale > thereof to be divided after legacies are satisfied into seven equal divisions and disposed of as above mentioned...

> (Executors were John Terrill and William Terrill; Witnesses were Nathaniel Welch and James Taylor.)

It should be noted that Margaret/Peggy Willis (dau/John Willis who d. 1761-2 and grand-daughter/Sarah WWHT) married Edmund Terrill, son of above Robert Terrill who died in 1786.

William died intestate. Daniel Owen administered the estate. It was distributed in 1825. Of his brothers and sisters, Frances (Fanny Gafford), and Elizabeth (Mrs. Charles Hansford) apparently were in life and took their shares. James Willis, Jr. is referred to as James Willis of Columbia County, dec'd. Of his heirs, Sarah (Mrs. Elihu Talbot), Ann (Mrs. Thomas Buttrill), Edna (Mrs. John Robertson) and Moses Procter Willis took per stirpes. David Allison signed as guardian for John Lewis Willis, Frances Willis, Elizabeth Willis, and Joshua Willis II . William Berry Willis had other brothers and sisters who did not take. They are George Willis, Benjamin Franklin Willis, Ann Willis, Mrs. Dunwoody Harrison, and Mrs. James Ballard. Some of these at least had children that were alive. Sarah "Much MARRIED"

Birth: ABT 1690 in Richmond County, VA [1] Death: ABT MAY 1761 in Orange County, VA [2] Quality: 3

Her will is in Orange Co. VA. WB II p. 310-11; 18 June 1760 , proved 28 May 1761. Some have said without any proof that her parents were John and Saints Hawksford (Hoxford). Others felt she was possibly a Willis who married (first) her cousin. Sources for dates: HFA Bulletin #19 page 57 by Dr. Newman HALL. It is also possible she was related to the Jones family who settled in this area. So far no one has been able to find the birth name of the Much Married Sarah.

Dr. Newman Hall also has an article in the Oct. 1991 Hudson Family Association Bulletin No. 76, on pages 105-108 titled, "SARAH of Richmond County, VA. Widow of WILLIAM WILLIS - HENRY WOOD - RUSH HUDSON - EDWARD TURBERVILLE". He has on pages 108-114 of this same publication an article on her son David Hudson. In his article Dr. Newman has written, "The family identity of the four times married Sarah is unknown and resists determination. Circumstantial evidence is strong in implying that she was one of a group of families living in the area where her father-in-law, John WILLIS, settled in upper Richmond County. However, even a critical examination of many likely families provides inconclusive information." (Pages 105-6 HFA Bulletin #76) Dr. Hall has the order of her children's birth by Rush Hudson thus: Rush b. ca 1723, Joshua b. ca 1725, and David b. ca 1727. This order does not, however, follow the naming pattern usually used in which the eldest son was named after the paternal grandfather (Joshua in this case), the next son after the maternal grandfather (unknown at this time), and the third son after the father himself (Rush in this case.)

From Linda Parker / Willis Board at Ancestry.com / Msg 1457 11/06/2000

You may have already located this info..but I never assume in genealogy. SARAH ROSSER d/o DAVID ROSSER, SR. AND SARAH SHERWOOD. First marriage to William Willis abt 1709. Second marriage to Henry Wood abt. 1718. Third marriage to Rush Hudson 07/06/1722. Fourth marriage to Edward Turbeville abt 1737. We are descendants of SARAH through Rush Hudson. Our info states SARAH had 2 sons (Wm. & John) from Willis union and 1 son (Henry) through Wood union. SARAH had 4 children through Hudson union (Joshua, Sarah, Rush and David)...note there are several named Joshua Hudson and Rush Hudson through the generations - can be confusing!!Hope this helps...Linda (betto@eatel.net)

Thomas Lovelace, Thomas Bowman and James Darnall witnessed the will, which was recorded April 21, 1773, seven years after it was written. K624.0

3. Jacob[2] Moreland (Patrick[1]) married Catherine (?) circa 1746. Catherine's maiden name is lost to us, as is the exact date of her marriage to Jacob. The will of Jacob's brother, William Moreland, shows that Jacob had at least one child, a son, named Walter Moreland. Walter was born about 1748. Assuming that Catherine was Walter's mother this writer affixes a marriage date of about 1746. In 1767, as Jacob's wife, Catherine released her dower rights in a deed of sale from her husband, Jacob Moreland, to George Maxwell (which see); Jacob died at an unknown age.

Jacob patented property on July 24, 1744 in Charles Co., Maryland. This property contained two parcels of escheat land, contiguous to each other, totaling 110 acres, plus 3 acres of contiguous vacant land. The properties were resurveyed and reduced to one entire tract of 113 acres held of Zachaiah Manor. Jacob named his tract Jacob's Birthright.[15] He attested to the validity of Peter Montgomery's will on January 16, 1752 in Charles Co., Maryland.[16] Jacob appeared on the tax list of in 1758 in Trinity Parish, Upper Hundred, Charles County, Maryland.[17] After owning Jacob's Birthright for 23 years, Jacob sold the plantation to George Maxwell, a merchant of Charles County, for £120, on December 12, 1767. Jacob's wife, Catherine, released her dower rights on the same date. The deed was witnessed by John Winter and Robert Horner and recorded March 9, 1768.[18]

The two known children of Jacob[2] Moreland and Catherine (?) both born in Charles Co., Maryland, were as follows:

- ✓ + 11. i. Walter[3] Moreland, born circa 1748; married Tabitha Dent.
- ✓ + 12. ii. Jacob Moreland, born circa 1750; married Celia (?).

5. John[2] Moreland (Patrick[1]) married Ann (?); John died at an unknown age. 1248.4

John appeared on the tax roll of 1733 in Port Tobacco Parish, East Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland.[19] He patented property on July 6, 1739 in Charles Co., Maryland. This purchase, or lease, from Lord Baltimore, is implied in the February 1768, Rent Roll of Zachaiah Manor. The roll shows that the land was originally leased to John Moreland in 1739 for the duration of the lives of Patrick Moreland and John Moreland, Junior. As of the date of the rent roll, February 1768, John's son-in-law, Paul Howell, age 40, was the tenant in possession, Patrick Moreland was age 34, and John Moreland, Junior, was age 32. The land contained 50-1/2 acres and is probably the same tract known as Morland Chance that John and Ann Moreland sold to Paul and Mary Howell in 1747 (which see.).[20] He leased property on December 25, 1746 in Charles Co., Maryland. This lease of 76 acres from Lord Baltimore is implied in the February 1768, Rent Roll of Zachaiah Manor. The roll shows that the land was originally leased to John Moreland in 1746, for the duration of the lives of Zachariah Moreland and Zephaniah Moreland. At the time of the rent roll, Zachariah Moreland was age 25, and Zephaniah Moreland, was age 23.[21] He sold property on August 10, 1747 in Charles Co., Maryland. John Morland, and Ann, his wife, for "Natural Love and affection we dear unto our two children (Viz.) Paule Howell and Mary his wife also for and in consideration of the sum of fifty Pounds" sold to said Paul and Mary Howell a 50-acre tract of land lying in Zachaiah Manor known as Morland Chance. The deed was signed by John and Anne (each making their marks) in the presence of Robert Hanson and was recorded on November 17, 1747, at the request of Paule Howell and Mary, his wife.[22]

Ann (?). Ann died at an unknown age. Ann made a will on July 31, 1775 in Charles Co., Maryland. As Ann Morland of Charles Co., she made her daughters Mary Morland and Sarah Morland her heirs and daughter Mary Morland, her executrix. Thomas [his mark] Wedding, Elizabeth [her mark] Vinson, and Thomas Darnall, witnessed. The will was recorded May 25, 1789.

It appears that Mary and Sarah were actually daughters-in-law of the testator, Ann Moreland.

Mary Moreland made a will June 27, 1789 in Charles County that was witnessed by Jos. Owens, Edward Dawin, and John Griffin. Mary made Melchezadeck Morland, son of Sarah Morland, her sole heir and executor.[23] The will was recorded November 1795. This indicates that Sarah was a daughter-in-law of Ann rather than a daughter. It is not certain as to which of Ann's sons Sarah married. Further, Sarah Moreland made her will June 6, 1801 in Charles Co., Maryland. She made Melchezedeck Moreland [her son] her sole heir and executor. She left Melchezedeck a tract of land "wherin I now live called Moreland Plains, containing about 70 acres more or less, which I have a right to during the lifetime of my brother Zachariah Moreland. The will was witnessed by Ignatius Middleton, James Middleton and Edward Jenkins, Jr., and recorded August 1802.[24] Ann appears as a landowner on the 1783 tax list in 4th District, Charles Co., Maryland. She is listed as owner of the 70-acre tract named Moreland's Plains.[25]

The five known children of John^{2} Moreland and Ann (?) were as follows:

+ 13. i. Mary^{3} Moreland, married Paul Howell.

14. ii. Patrick Moreland; Patrick was born circa 1734; Patrick died at an unknown age.

He was listed as age 34 when his name appeared on his father's entry on the February 1768, Rent Roll of Zachaiah Manor, in Charles Co., Maryland.[26] A 1778 census of males 18 years of age and upward, listed Patrick Moreland in Port Tobacco Parish, Upper Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland.[27] Patrick is listed as a landowner on the 1783 tax list in 4th District, Charles Co., Maryland. He is listed as owner of a 100-acre tract called Duke's Delight.[28] Patrick's household on the 1790 Census is composed of two males over age 16, one female, and two slaves. Patrick was listed as the head of a family on the 1800 Census. He is listed as age 45 upwards with a female age 26 to 45, and two slaves.

15. iii. John Moreland Jr.; John was born 1736; he married Michel (?); John died at an unknown age.

He bought property on March 12, 1761 in Charles Co., Maryland. In partnership with Thomas Bowling Speake, John bought from Matthew Moore, for an amount of 5000 lbs. of crop tobacco and 60 acres, a 155 acre tract in Zachiah Manor called Baggott's Boot. The land partially adjoined by John Baggott's land. Thomas and Daniel Jennifer witnessed the deed.[29] He sold property on October 14, 1766 in Charles Co., Maryland. He, Matthew Moore and Thomas Bowling Speake, all of Charles Co., sold to Thomas Wedding, of Charles Co., a 72-acre tract, which was called part of Baggott's Boot. Samuel Hanson and George Lee witnessed the deed. Michel, wife of John Moreland, Jr., Jane, wife of Matthew Moore, and Ann, wife of Thomas Bowling Speake, released their dower rights on October 14, 1766.[30] He was listed on a census of males 18 years and upward, in 1778 in Port Tobacco Parish, East Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland.[31] John was living in Virginia when the following Bill of Sale was recorded in Charles Co., Maryland: "...I John Morland, Jr., of the state of Virginia, planter and in consideration of the sum of 10 pounds current currency of Maryland ... sell ...unto Joshua Arvin of the same county & state aforesaidin a plain & open markett all my "wright" of my father John Morland's estate late of Charles County deceased which part of my father's estate I do warrant & defend.. this 17 day of May anno Domini 1790. Signed by John Moreland, Junr. Witnessed by Thomas Darnall and Elias Arvin.[32]

+ 16. iv. Zachariah Moreland, born circa 1743 in Charles Co., Maryland.

+ 17. v. Zephaniah Moreland, born circa 1745 in Charles Co., Maryland; married Sarah (?).

Walter^{3} Moreland (Jacob^{2}, Patrick^{1}); Walter was born circa 1748 in Charles Co., Maryland; he married Tabitha Dent; Walter died circa December, 1787 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age; Walter was the executor of an unknown person 's estate July 26, 1777 in Charles Co., Maryland.[44]

In the will of William Moreland (his uncle) dated on April 6, 1772 and probated July 26, 1777 in Charles Co., Maryland, Walter was named executor and sole heir. Walter inherited nineteen slaves and all of William lands and goods.[45] In William Moreland's will, Walter was named by William to handle his estate on April 6, 1772 in Charles Co., Maryland.[46] He was listed on a census of males 18 years and upward, in 1778 in Port Tobacco Parish, East Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland.[47] Walter took an oath of allegiance on January 28, 1778 in Charles Co., Maryland.[48] Walter is listed as a landowner on the 1783 tax list in 4th District, Charles Co., Maryland. He is shown owning two parcels, a 96-acre parcel named Mike Garner, and a 30-acre parcel named Moreland's Help.[49] Walter made his will on November 13, 1787. It was witnessed by Robert Wade, George King, and Thomas Queen and probated January 2, 1788 in Prince George's Co., Maryland. As Walter Moreland of Prince George's County, Maryland, he named his wife, Tabitha Moreland, executrix and his son John Dent Moreland, executor. He devised to his son, William Moreland, two slaves; son John Dent Moreland, two slaves, a horse, bed, and furniture; son Thomas Blackman Moreland, two slaves and two horses; son Walter Moreland, two slaves and a horse; son Samuel, two slaves; son Hanson, two slaves; daughter Sarah Hambaugh, wife of John Hambaugh, two slaves; and daughter Ann Moreland, two slaves, a horse, bed, and furniture. Tabitha was bequeathed eight slaves and the remainder of the estate.[50]

Tabitha Dent. Tabitha was born in 1743. Tabitha's household on the 1790 Census in Prince George's Co., Maryland, is composed of 2 males 16 or over, 3 males under 16, 1 female, and 20 slaves.

The eight known children of Walter^{3} Moreland and Tabitha Dent were as follows:

- ~~27~~. i. John Dent^{4} Moreland; John died 1816 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age.

  A John Moreland is listed as head of a household on the 1800 Census in Prince Georges Co., Maryland. The household consisted of 2 males under 10, 1 male 45 upward, no females, and 5 slaves; The lack of females suggests that John was a widower in 1800. He is listed as age 45 upward, which would make him too old to be John Dent Moreland, son of Walter. Either the age is incorrect on the census, or this is a different John Moreland.

- ~~28~~. ii. Ann Moreland married Elkanna H. Boswell January 3, 1790 in Prince George's Co., Maryland; Ann died at an unknown age.

- ~~29~~. iii. Thomas Blackman Moreland married Mary Wheat October 17, 1799 in Prince George's Co., Maryland;[51] Thomas died 1808 in Prince George's Co., Maryland, at an unknown age.

35. George^4 Moreland (Jacob^{3}, Jacob^{2}, Patrick^{1}); George was born 1775 in Port Tobacco Parish, East Hundred, Charles Co., Maryland; he married Hannah (?). Hannah's maiden name is not yet known, nor is the date and location of her marriage to George; George died after August 30, 1853 in Maries Co., Missouri, at an unknown age; he was a buyer at an Estate Sale January 11, 1815 in Jefferson Co., Tennessee.

He migrated from Maryland with his family to South Carolina then advanced on to Wilkes Co., Georgia where he first appears in 1797. George was to remain Wilkes County until about 1809 when he removed to the York District of South Carolina. George's sister, Sarah (or Sally) made her home in Wilkes County as well, she having married William Russell, son of John Russell, of that county. George's Wilkes County years do not appear to have been particularly prosperous for him. The Wilkes County Tax Digests show that George did not own any land during this time. He drew blanks in the Georgia Land Lotteries of 1803 and 1805. George witnessed a deed from John Combs, and Milley, his wife, to John Bailey on September 4, 1797 in Wilkes Co., Georgia.[87] George failed to register to pay his property taxes 1799 in Wilkes Co., Georgia.[88] George registered to pay taxes in 1805 in Wilkes Co., Georgia; Poll Tax.[89] He attested to the validity of Elijah Johnson's will on March 3, 1806 in Wilkes Co., Georgia.[90] He was appointed to handle John Russell's estate on December 10, 1807 in Wilkes Co., Georgia.[91] He was appointed to handle John Russell's estate on March 8, 1808 in Wilkes Co., Georgia.

George migrated from Georgia to York District, South Carolina, circa 1809. He probably moved to his widowed mother's farm as his father, Jacob, had died previously in 1808. George was listed as the head of a family on the 1810 Census in York District, South Carolina. The household consisted of 1 male 26 to 45, 1 male 10 to 16, 2 males under 10, 1 female 16 to 26, and 1 female under 10.[92] The State of South Carolina granted he land on May 4, 1812 in York District, South Carolina. The grant was issued pursuant to a legislative act passed February 19, 1791, establishing a mode of granting vacant land. The property was described as 240 acres, surveyed March 24, 1812, on waters of Turkey Creek, waters of Broad River, bounded by lines of William Gibson (NW), Latham (SW), the heirs of John Palmer, Esq. (SE), and Montes Land (NE); "wherein George Moreland and Widow Moreland lives." The "Widow Moreland," in all probability was George's mother, Celia Moreland, widow of Jacob Moreland, and it is likely that the land itself was Jacob's old farm.[93]

He moved from York District, South Carolina, to Jefferson Co., Tennessee, circa 1813. On June 15, 1818, as George Moreland of Jefferson County, he bought a 297 acre tract in Jefferson Co., Tennessee, located in the district south of the French Broad and Hoston Rivers, on Muddy Creek. He later sold this tract on February 22, 1821.[94,95] He bought property from the State of Tennessee on February 1, 1825 in McMinn Co., Tennessee. The lands of McMinn County fell to the state as a result of a treaty with the Cherokee Indians. The state made the land available to buyers, requiring a down payment, with terms spread over a number of years. He acquired 160 acres as an occupant enterer. The entry taker, Nat. Smith, noted that he received of George Moreland $160.00 in Tennessee bank notes, presumably as a down payment. He held this tract for eight years. On August 13, 1833, he assigned his interest in the property to Joseph Smith [for an unspecified amount.].[96] George was listed as the head of a family on the 1830 Census in McMinn Co., Tennessee.[97] George moved in 1833 to St. Clair Co., Illinois.

He moved to Missouri before 1839. He settled in Johnson Township of Crawford County. Johnson Civil Township makes up most of the area of township 39. In 1855, Johnson Township fell into the southeastern most part of the newly created Maries County, where it is situated today. He acquired land in section 4, township 39, ranges 7 west of the meridian. Everett Marshall King, in his book History of Maries County, states that George's "only known home in this county was on the Bourbese, later owned (and mostly entered) by his son Andy, and now owned and lived on by Emmett Duncan. An Indian trail crossed the creek on this land, and later on one of the many forks of the Potosi road also crossed there. Its easy access probably led to its having been settled early."

Some of George and Hannah's children also removed to the Moreland Settlement in Missouri. Sons, Elias, Thomas, and William came with their families. Andrew, Anna and Nancy, all still single, also came. Daughter, Sarah, who married Silas McCann November 2, 1834 in St. Clair County, Illinois, does not appear to have joined her family in Missouri.

George and Hannah's third son John Moreland died about 1836 or 1837, soon after coming to Missouri. There is some family tradition that holds that Indians killed John and his father-in-law, Mr. Bennett, in the Cherokee Nation. John may have preceded his brothers and sisters in their move to Missouri. After John's death his widow Sarah (Bennett) Moreland married James Collins March 19, 1838 in Crawford Co., Missouri.

Over the next few years many of the Moreland's McMinn County, Tennessee neighbors and relatives migrated to Johnson Township. Among them were members of the Southard, James, John, and Robison families. He sold property to Andrew Moreland on September 11, 1839 in Crawford Co., Missouri. George had originally patented this property from the US Government via a Cash Entry Sale. The Certificate of Sale, though, is dated April 24, 1843; four years after George sold the property to Andrew. This parcel was for 40 and 43/100ths acres.[98,99] George was listed as the head of a family on the 1840 Census in Crawford Co., Missouri.[100] He sold property on March 11, 1846 in Crawford Co., Missouri, to his son, Andrew.[101] He sold property on October 3, 1846 in Crawford Co., Missouri, to his son-in-law, James Bailey.[102] He was listed as a member of Andrew Moreland's household in the 1850 Census in Maries Co., Missouri.[103] He sold property on August 30, 1853 in Crawford Co., Missouri, to his son, Andrew, at about age 78. This is the last known record of George's life. He apparently died shortly afterward.[104]

This is the first of several parcels that Andrew bought from his father. In his book History of Maries County, Missouri, Everette Marshall King' suggested that Andrew "mostly entered" his father's property after George's death, but there are four deeds in Crawford County verifying that either George and Hannah, together, or George, alone, sold property to Andrew.
